DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that Kendo Kinsey, assigned to 48th Precinct, on April 22, 2010, violated Patrol Guide Number 203-10, page 1, paragraph 5- public contact - prohibited conduct in that he requested the assistance of other members of the service to prevent the adjudication of a summons that had been issued to another individual. Additional materials relating to this matter are covered by a Bronx Supreme Court protective order and can be provided to counsel if counsel signs a non-disclosure agreement in connection with this matter.
2. The NYPD has deemed substantiated an allegation that on May 24, 2010, Officer Kinsey failed to make an entry to his memo book regarding an allegation (unsubstantiated) of missing property.
3. The NYPD has deemed substantiated an allegation that on February 20, 2011, Officer Kinsey failed to make activity log entries.
4. The NYPD has substantiated an allegation that on August 21, 2015, Officer Kinsey failed to safeguard a prisoner's property.
5. The NYPD has deemed substantiated an allegation that on June 23--26, 2020, Officer Kinsey failed to safeguard his service weapon and failed to immediately notify his supervisor of the loss of said weapon. The officer admitted his guilt in a departmental proceeding.
6. The NYPD has deemed substantial an allegation that on or about January 14, 2020, Officer Kinsey failed and neglected to prepare a property clerk's invoice worksheet for property taken into custody.
7. The NYPD has substantiated an allegation that on March 18, 2020, P.O. Kinsey's driver's license was revoked/suspended due to an insurance lapse. The officer corrected it immediately.
8. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about February 20, 2011, while breaking up a house party, Officer Kinsey spoke discourteously to an individual when he stated "I know what the fuck I'm doing." In addition, it was substantiated that Officer Kinsey failed to prepare a stop and frisk report and memobook of the encounter.
9. The NYPD has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about October 10, 2015, Officer Kinsey abused his authority by detaining several civilians for a period of time without the requisite reasonable suspicion.

10. Kendo Kinsey is a named defendant in the civil action Robles Gonzalez v. City of New York, filed in Bronx Supreme Court relating to an incident that occurred on December 11, 2010.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.
