Summary:

(JR)08/27/08, 0138 Hrs, 235DISPUTED ARREST/ MISSING PROP FROM PERSONMr. [REDACTED] was connected via 911 operator 1783 because he wants to complain about being ejected from the L-train at the Livonia Ave station by a group of cops after he was issued two summonses. He explained that he was observed walking in between cars and issued summons # [REDACTED] by PO. Rodriguez, Tax 942814. The complainant is upset that the officers checked off that he refused certain information on the summons - meanwhile they never even asked him for the information. In addition, PO. Frias, Tax 941210, issued him summons # [REDACTED] for failure to provide ID, meanwhile he did provide a driver license. The complainant was ejected from the transit system by PO. Frias. In closing he accused the cops of stealing his silver I-POD Nano. I/O asked him if he was ever frisked or searched and he stated that he hadn't been touched by the cops. I/O asked if his back pack was ever searched or in police custody and he stated that it hadn't been. I/O asked him to explain why he suspects the police of taking his IPOD and he explained that he was taken off the train and asked for ID. He then removed his headphones - as the police stood by waiting for him to produce his ID - and wrapped them around the IPOD before placing the IPOD and headphones into a black case. At this point he isn't sure, but he thinks he remembers placing the case in his bag or on the ground at which time one of the cops told him that he shouldn't put things on the floor. The complainant stated that his property was always under his control and never handled by the police officers at any time. The complainant stated that he did not see any of the officers take his IPOD, but he can not think of any other reason why he can't find it in his bag now. (JR)
