DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated allegations against Christopher Dede of Abuse – Frisk and Abuse – Stop. These allegations related to an stop and frisk of a 25-year-old civilian on November 28, 2009 at 11:30 p.m. at Green Avenue and Throop Avenue. While Officer Dede was on patrol for a pattern of robberies in the area of Lexington and Thompson Avenue in Brooklyn, Officer Dede observed the civilian engaged in what appeared to be “casing” behavior following another person and the civilian had a “bulge” in his waistband. As a result of these observations and the ongoing robbery investigation, Officer Dede stopped and frisked the civilian. The CCRB determined that these observations did not rise to the level of suspicion necessary to conduct the stop and frisk.
2. Christopher Dede is a named defendant in the civil action Eric Jimenez v. City of New York, et al, index number 154 323/2015, filed in New York State Supreme Court, involving a police action incident that occurred on February 7, 2013.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.
