DISCLOSURES

In connection with the above person whom the People may call as a witness in that matter, please be aware of the following disclosure(s):

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that Detective Cortes, between February 8, 2010 and May 17, 2019, failed to safeguard ammunition issued to her by the NYPD, in that she left the ammunition at her prior residence.
2. The New York Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on April 8, 2011, Detective Cortes failed to complete her memo book entries identifying the circumstances and description of property being vouchered, in violation of patrol guide procedures.
3. Karlina Cortes is a named defendant in the civil action NAJEE GARNETT V. THE CITY OF NEW YORK, ET AL., 15CV02930, filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York involving an incident on January 17, 2014.
4. The New York Police Department (NYPD) deemed substantiated that Det. Cortes, on May 15, 2010, was the victim of domestic violence, and that she failed to report the occurrence to the Internal Affairs Bureau, and further failed to safeguard property, in that the accused stole a cell phone.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
