Case Summary

This complaint was filed by § 87(2)(b) with the Internal Affairs Bureau via telephone on April 6, 2010. She was not a witness to this incident. On April 1, 2010, at 1:00 p.m., in the vicinity of Avenue H and East 9th Street in Brooklyn, approximately 3 marked patrol cars containing 6 officers approached § 87(2)(b) at the same time. Two unidentified uniformed Asian male officers exited one car, and two unidentified uniformed white male officers exited another. A 5'4", 130 lbs., uniformed black male officer who later identified herself as PO "Shafidiya," exited another. She has been identified via investigation as PO Beatrice Shafidiya. She was accompanied by an unidentified uniformed black female officer. The two Asian and two white officers stopped § 87(2)(b) and claimed that he fit the description of a domestic violence suspect. § 87(2)(b) was not complaining about this aspect of the incident. He spoke with them, they checked his identity, and then allowed him to leave. He walked approximately three buildings away when PO Shafidiya approached him and asked, "What are you doing in this area anyway nigga?" (Allegation A). § 87(2)(b) was upset by this comment. He called his sister and PO Shafidiya told him to hang up, but he told her that he needed witnesses if he was going to be dealing with the 70th Precinct. PO Shafidiya allowed § 87(2)(b) to leave and he walked to some people who were watching the incident. They provided him with paper and § 87(2)(b) walked up to PO Shafidiya and asked how to spell her name. She stated her name was, "Shafidiya." At this time that PO Shafidiya was yelling at § 87(2)(b) another marked car drove up, containing an unidentified uniformed black male officer. He spoke with PO Shafidiya and then approached § 87(2)(b). The black male officer asked § 87(2)(b) for his ID and told him that he was going to be given a summons. That officer later told § 87(2)(b) that he had a warrant and he was arrested. § 87(2)(b) was placed in the car of the two Asian officers and they explained that they did not know why § 87(2)(b) was arrested for § 87(2)(b).

PO Shafidiya was identified by name by § 87(2)(b). She is the only officer in the NYPD with the name Shafidiya assigned to the 70th Precinct and she was § 87(2)(b) arresting officer. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) was called 5 times and sent 2 letters between April 14, 2010, and April 20, 2010. The first time § 87(2)(b) was called, he declined to schedule an interview because he was unsure whether he wished to follow through with the complaint. He was advised to call the undersigned the next day, but he did not. § 87(2)(b) was left four voicemail messages since that conversation and has not contacted the undersigned. Neither of the letters sent to § 87(2)(b) were returned by the USPS. A search of the NYC Department of Correction's inmate look-up system, performed on April 21, 2010, confirmed that § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated in NYC.
