DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated that on April 18, 2013 PO Wang did not go to the Parking Violations Bureau as scheduled.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about May 27, 2015, Lt. Wang failed to notify the Internal Affairs Bureau. Officer Wang had a domestic dispute with his wife wherein he pushed her, and did not promptly notify the Internal Affairs Bureau.
3. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on June 10, 2019 Sgt. Wang found property in a department vehicle.
4. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about February 23, 2014, Sgt Wang told an arrestee to “calm the fuck down” and “move the fuck over,” which are in violation of Patrol Guide 203-09 requiring officers to be courteous and respectful to the public.
5. The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) received an allegation that Lt. Wang, on August 20, 2020, refused to give his name and shield number. On September 18, 2020, it is alleged that Lt. Wang abused his authority by threatening arrest. Both of these allegations are pending and there is no additional information.
6. The New York Police Department received an allegation that on August 17, 2020 Officer Wang failed to make a complaint report. This arose out of a domestic violence incident wherein he pushed his wife. That allegation is pending.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
