With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time Michael Gagliano has been employed by the New York City Police Department, that he has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in several state lawsuits,

1. Lawsuit filed in Richmond County Supreme Court for an incident that occurred in August 2013: Braxton v. The City of New York, et al., 101320/2014, which settled on August 11, 2015, ending litigation.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. In May 2019, the Officer Gagliano had a substantiated departmental investigation for "memobook incomplete/improper," for which no disciplinary action was taken.
2. In May 2018, the Officer had a substantiated departmental investigation for "failing to
