With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: the People are aware that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Police Officer Devon Newland has received internal discipline while assigned to the 121st precinct, on or about October 2018, while off-duty, wrongfully failed to safeguard his off-duty firearm, a Smith & Wesson Shield 9mm, by allowing an 18 year old person to hold and photograph said firearm. According to the Central Personnel Index the disposition is still pending.

Additionally, in April 2019, Officer Newland had allegations substantiated for failure to notify supervisor in a timely manner, failure to activate body worn camera, and incomplete/improper memo book. Officer Newland received a schedule command discipline for the substantiated allegations.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] during office hours. .

Sincerely,
