Synopsis

On June 12, 2007, at approximately 3:30 PM, § 87(2)(b) and her § 87(2)(b)-year-old son, § 87(2)(b) were pulled over on the corner of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx by two uniformed officers, one of whom was identified as PO Jeannette Rivera of the 44th Precinct from her nameplate. The officers were operating an unmarked green patrol vehicle at the time. Upon stopping § 87(2)(b) and her son, the unidentified male officer approached § 87(2)(b) at the driver's side of the vehicle, while PO Rivera approached § 87(2)(b) at the passenger side of the vehicle. Immediately upon approach, PO Rivera opened § 87(2)(b)'s car door and instructed § 87(2)(b) to exit the vehicle (in Spanish). As § 87(2)(b) remained still inside her vehicle, PO Rivera repeated her instructions a few more times. Once § 87(2)(b) complied and exited the vehicle, PO Rivera instructed § 87(2)(b) to position herself face first against the vehicle and to raise her hands up against the hood of the car. Upon doing so, PO Rivera proceeded to place her hands inside § 87(2)(b)'s bra and pants. PO Rivera then grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s purse and took § 87(2)(b)'s identification out of her purse. Moments later, PO Rivera returned § 87(2)(b)'s identification and returned to her patrol vehicle. Though § 87(2)(b) was certain that her son never exited the vehicle, she did not know what occurred between § 87(2)(b) and the male officer during the incident. Nevertheless, the officers left without issuing either of them any summonses. When asked why they were stopped, § 87(2)(b) stated that the officers had received an anonymous call claiming that she and her son were trespassing. § 87(2)(b) further stated that that was not the case since she has been residing in her building for fifteen years.

On July 12, 2007, § 87(2)(b) filed a complaint with the CCRB. On July 19, 2007, the undersigned attempted to contact § 87(2)(b) at her home phone number (which she left on the call processing system). Given that the number was deemed out of service, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b)'s work number and left a message with the secretary. The undersigned also confirmed § 87(2)(b)'s phone number and home address with the secretary. A "please call" letter was subsequently sent. On July 24, 2007, the undersigned made a second attempt to call § 87(2)(b)'s home – it was out of service. The undersigned made a second call to § 87(2)(b)'s work and was informed by a supervisor that § 87(2)(b) has not been employed by them since June. The supervisor then provided the undersigned with § 87(2)(b)'s correct home phone number as well as her cell phone number. The undersigned called § 87(2)(b) at the correct home phone number and made phone contact with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) informed the undersigned that she was busy at the moment and that she would call back at a later time. On July 31, 2007, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) at her home phone and left a voicemail. On August 1, 2007, the undersigned made a third phone call attempt to contact § 87(2)(b) and was met with a busy signal. On August 3, 2007, the undersigned spoke with § 87(2)(b) and obtained a brief phone statement. § 87(2)(b) then informed the undersigned of her decision to withdraw her complaint § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) She further stated that she was withdrawing her complaint voluntarily and of her own free will. The undersigned immediately sent a complaint withdrawal letter enclosed in self-addressed envelope. § 87(2)(g)
