DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that Mohsin Javid failed to safeguard and did not voucher a prisoner's money.
2. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that Mohsin Javin was discourteous with words. On March 1, 2018, at approximately 7:20 p.m., a man was driving in the vicinity of 405 East 105th Street, in Manhattan, when the man was pulled over by Officer Mohsin Javid and his partner for having a broken tail light. The man was arrested after getting out of his car and refusing to comply with orders to get back inside. During the arrest, Officer Mohsin Javid called the man a "fucking idiot." Officer Mohsin Javin could not recall making this statement during the incident; however, when Officer Mohsin Javin was shown the footage from his body worn camera during his CCRB interview he acknowledged having said it. Officer Mohsin Javin stated that he made the statement out of frustration, because he felt the man was making the routine car stop more difficult than it had to be. Under the provisions of Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09, officers must be courteous and respectful when dealing with the public. As Officer Mohsin Javid's statement referring to the man as a "fucking idiot" was neither courteous nor respectful, the CCRB recommended that allegation "Discourtesy – Word" be substantiated.
