Case Summary

The IAB referral for § 87(2)(b)'s complaint contained no contact information. Results of a Lexis Nexis search provided one possible address and phone number for § 87(2)(b) and the arrest report provided an additional possible address. On April 12, 2013, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and a voicemail was left. On April 12, 2013, first please call letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) at both possible addresses. On April 17 and April 22, 2013, additional calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) and voicemails were left. On April 24, 2013, final please call letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) at both possible addresses. On May 14, and May 15, 2013, calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) and voicemails were left. On May 20, 2013, the investigator verified via the Department of Corrections inmate locator that § 87(2)(b) was not incarcerated. On May 22, 2013, an additional Lexis Nexis search was conducted, which yielded one possible email address for § 87(2)(b). The same day, a first please call letter was sent to § 87(2)(b) via email. The email was immediately returned as undeliverable. On June 6, 2013, the undersigned investigator called § 87(2)(b) rris, § 87(2)(b)'s attorney. § 87(2)(b) would not provide additional contact information for § 87(2)(b) and would not confirm whether the contact information in record for § 87(2)(b) was accurate. § 87(2)(b) stated that he would speak to § 87(2)(b) to see how he wished to proceed and would call back. On June 12, 2013, the investigator called § 87(2)(b) and left a voicemail explaining that without a statement from § 87(2)(b) the case would have to be closed, and asking for a call back. On June 13, 2013, the investigator called the IAB CCRB liaison who confirmed that IAB had no additional contact information for § 87(2)(b) and that IAB was not investigating any aspect of the incident.

To date, none of the letters have been returned as undeliverable by the USPS, and no calls have been received from § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b).
