With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Lieutenant Richard Aseng has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in a federal civil lawsuit.

1. Banner v. City of New York, et al. – originally filed in the Southern District of New York under case number 12-cv-07884, then transferred due to the Eastern District of New York under case number 13-cv-01332 where the case settled for an undisclosed amount in 2014, without any admission of fault or liability by the defendants.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On June 7, 2019, Lieutenant Richard Aseng had a substantiated departmental investigation for failing to prepare a stop and frisk report. He received Verbal Instructions.
2. On August 7, 2019, Lieutenant Richard Aseng received a Schedule A Command Discipline for failing to supervise a taser spark test conducted by another member of service.
