Mr. Fonte and Mr. Gallucci,

With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: although a PACER search reveals that Detective Yanira Beltre has never been a party to a federal civil rights lawsuit, a check revealed that in 2012, while out sick, she was found guilty of traveling out of the state without NYPD approval, and she was absent from her residence on approximately ten occasions without permission from the medical division. Also in 2012, she was found guilty of possessing a listening device without police necessity or purpose, and wrongfully recording a conversation without police necessity. During the same year, she was found guilty of being discourteous to a supervisor, as well as failing to properly safeguard her firearm and shield.

For these acts, she was penalized by the loss of vacation days.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] during office hours.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
