DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that in July of 2017, Thomas Rossi abused department regulations and violated department rules and regulations while dealing with a specific person. This began with a complaint from a citizen that Thomas Rossi was issuing her unfounded summonses for littering in retaliation for her filing a complaint. She also stated that Thomas Rossi approached her with the summonses already filled out without asking for her identification based on pedigree information that he knew from other incidents. She also stated that Thomas Rossi had waited for her in the hallway of her building.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
