DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on June 3, 2017, Brianna Gordon (formerly Brianna Asselta) became combative and argumentative toward a ranking supervisor while responding to a radio run and in front of other officers and civilians. She stated “If you want to go over our heads and screw this up go right ahead,” and threw her arms up in the air.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about January 21, 2019, Brianna Gordon failed to accurately complete a property invoice form and, as a result, that there was a discrepancy between the invoice and a “bank drop.”
3. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about September 11, 2019, Brianna Gordon failed to accurately complete a property invoice form and, as a result, that there was a discrepancy between the invoice and a “bank drop.”

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
