Case Summary

On April 12, 2017, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB to file this complaint. § 87(2)(b) alleged that on April 12, 2017 at approximately 4:45PM, she called the 71st Precinct detective squad in order to get a complaint number for her missing daughter. She spoke to Detective Ansari Kalil, of the 71st Precinct detective squad. § 87(2)(b) asked Det. Kalil for a case number, which he provided. § 87(2)(b) asked Det. Kalil which detective was assigned the case; Det. Kalil told her he did not know. § 87(2)(b) asked for Det. Kalil's name, which he provided. Det. Kalil then told § 87(2)(b) to hold on. Det. Kalil said, "What the fuck? Why is this lady asking for people's names?" (Allegation A). A few seconds later, the phone clicked and the line went dead. § 87(2)(b) was not arrested or summonsed as a result of this incident. There is no video footage of this incident.

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is § 87(2)(b)'s first CCRB complaint.
Det. Kalil has been a member of service for twelve years and has had five other complaints filed against him, including eight allegations. There are no substantiated allegations against him. Allegations of discourtesy were closed without a full investigation in CCRB #200707884 and CCRB #201111213. In CCRB #201307768, an allegation of discourtesy involving the word "fuck" was disposed as unsubstantiated.

Findings and Recommendations

Subject Officer Identification

Det. Kalil did not have any recollection of this incident (Board Review 03). § 87(2)(b) identified Det. Kalil by name. There are no other detectives with the last name "Kalil" in the 71st Precinct detective squad. Det. Kalil was working at the 71st Precinct stationhouse at the time of this incident. In his interview, Det. Kalil stated that he answers the general phone number for the detective squad. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation A-Discourtesy: Detective Ansari Kalil spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified that on April 12, 2017, she woke up at 3:00AM to discover that her § 87(2)(b) year old daughter, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was not home (Board Review 04). § 87(2)(b) called 911 and two uniformed police officers arrived and took her complaint. Later that day, § 87(2)(b)

received a voicemail from Detective Michael Gries, from the 71st Precinct detective squad, who asked for a callback. § 87(2)(b) called Det. Gries and he told her that he spoke with her daughter and that she would call § 87(2)(b) back. § 87(2)(b) was not satisfied because she felt Det. Gries should provide her with her daughter's exact location. At this point, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB and filed a complaint against Det. Gries for not handling her case properly. § 87(2)(b) then called ACS and spoke with someone who told her that she needed to call the police back and get a docket number before ACS could get involved.

§ 87(2)(b) then called back the 71st Precinct detective squad and Det. Kalil picked up the phone. § 87(2)(b) asked Det. Kalil for her case number, which he provided. § 87(2)(b) asked Det. Kalil which detective was assigned the case; Det. Kalil told her he did not know. § 87(2)(b) asked for Det. Kalil's name, which he provided. Det. Kalil then told § 87(2)(b) to hold on. Det. Kalil said, "What the fuck? Why is this lady asking for people's names?" A few seconds later, the phone clicked and the line went dead. § 87(2)(b) believes Det. Kalil was not aware that § 87(2)(b) was still on the line when he made the discourteous remark.

Det. Kalil did not have an independent recollection of this incident. Det. Kalil was in the 71st Precinct detective squad at 4:45PM on April 12, 2017. The undersigned informed Det. Kalil that a woman called the 71st Precinct detective squad to follow up on a complaint regarding her missing daughter. This did not refresh Det. Kalil's memory of the incident. There is a general number for the 71st Precinct detective squad. Det. Kalil sometimes answers that general number if the phone is ringing. Det. Kalil had no recollection of speaking to any specific woman because the phone rings frequently. Det. Kalil frequently provides his name to people so he could not recall if he provided his name on that day. Det. Kalil usually answers the phone by saying, "71 Detective Squad. Detective Kalil." Det. Kalil did not recall saying, "What the fuck? What's wrong with this lady asking what's your name?" to any civilian. Det. Kalil did not recall using any profanity in speaking with any civilian over the phone on April 12, 2017.

No other officers were interviewed in regards to this case because Det. Kalil could not provide the names of other officers who were present in the detective squad office at the time of the incident and because too many people could have possibly been in the detective squad office who may have heard the alleged discourteous remark.

Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 requires that officers be courteous and respectful in their interactions with the public (Board Review 05).
