Case Summary

On March 21, 2018, Sgt. Brian Lewicki of Transit District 4 reported this incident to the Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) via phone on behalf of § 87(2)(b) who was injured while in police custody. IAB forwarded this case to the CCRB via log number 18-11529 on March 27, 2018.

The IAB log contained an address but no phone number or email address for § 87(2)(b). Three letters were mailed to this address between April 3, 2018, and April 13, 2018, and one was returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable.

Searches of Lexis Nexis, CLEAR, BADS, DMV, and the New York City Department of Homeless Services (DHS) produced six phone numbers and eight additional addresses for § 87(2)(b). A call to the first number on April 3, 2018, resulted in contact with § 87(2)(b)'s aunt. She stated that she had not spoken with § 87(2)(b) in approximately five years and did not know how to reach him. Contact was not established with § 87(2)(b) at four of the remaining five numbers, and voicemails could not be left. The final phone number was determined to belong to a business, Kitchen and Bath Creations in Baltimore, Maryland. Three letters were mailed to each address between April 4, 2018, and April 13, 2018. Letters sent to six of the eight addresses were returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable.

In addition to the above, five calls to § 87(2)(b)'s attorney and searches of CTS, 411.com, Anywho.com, and Facebook did not produce additional contact information for him. On April 17, 2018, Sgt. Carlos Figueroa of Transit Bureau Investigations revealed that he had been unable to establish contact with § 87(2)(b) during his investigation as he did not have any working phone numbers for him. On May 7, 2018, a search of the New York City Department of Correction Inmate Lookup Service determined that § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated.

No body-worn camera footage was available for this incident as Transit District 4 was not participating in the program at the time of the incident. Further, on April 24, 2018, Helen Smart of the MTA revealed that there were no cameras located in the vicinity of the incident location.

To date, the CCRB has been unable to establish contact with § 87(2)(b). In the absence of a sworn statement or video footage capturing actionable misconduct, the investigation was unable to move forward. § 87(2)(g)
