Case Summary

On June 25, 2021, § 87(2)(b) submitted this complaint on behalf of himself and another individual with IAB. On July 7, 2021, the CCRB received this complaint via IAB log #21-14801.

From July 15, 2021 until August 12, 2021, a total of five phone calls were placed to the telephone number § 87(2)(b) provided in the IAB referral. All five calls went unanswered and voicemail messages were left requesting return calls.

The IAB referral noted that there was another alleged victim, but the individual's name was not known to § 87(2)(b). Via police documents the individual was identified as § 87(2)(b). On August 12, 2021, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and he answered the phone. § 87(2)(b) briefly explained the circumstances of the incident and believed that the officers did what they needed to in order to complete their duty. § 87(2)(b) did not wish to participate in the investigation at this time because he did not have any complaint about the police officers' conduct.

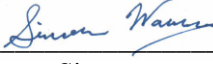

From July 15, 2021 until August 2, 2021, three letters were emailed to § 87(2)(b) at the email address provided in the IAB referral. None of the emails were returned as undeliverable and § 87(2)(b) has not replied to any email.

CLEAR searches were conducted for § 87(2)(b) and searched for the telephone number associated with the IAB log resulted in results for individuals which were not conclusively related to § 87(2)(b). No additional contact information was obtained.

On August 12, 2021, searches of the NYS and NYC Department of Corrections database were performed for § 87(2)(b). The searches yielded negative results and § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated.
