Case Summary

On October 30, 2013, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint via telephone with the Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) under IAB log number 2013-10366. The IAB log listed an address, but did not list a phone number for § 87(2)(b). The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) received this case on November 4, 2013.

A search of previous complaints filed by § 87(2)(b) with the CCRB, a Whitepages search and a New York State Department of Motor Vehicles database search conducted on November 7, 2013 did not list any results for § 87(2)(b). On the same day, and November 13, 2013, the undersigned investigator mailed please-call letters to the address provided on the IAB log. Both letters were returned to the CCRB by the United States Postal Service (USPS) on November 14, 2013, and November 20, 2013 respectively, because of an insufficient address. A LexisNexis database search also conducted on November 7, 2013, listed another mailing address, an email address but no phone number for § 87(2)(b). On November 13, 2013 and November 20, 2013, the undersigned investigator mailed two please-call letters to this address and generated an email. The letters mailed to this address were not returned to the CCRB by the USPS; however, the email was unable to be delivered. Additionally, the undersigned investigator also mailed two please-call letters on November 20, 2013 and November 27, 2013 to a mailing address listed on § 87(2)(b) arrest report obtained through the NYPD Booking, Arraignment and Disposition System database search conducted on November 7, 2013. These letters were not returned to the CCRB by the USPS. A New York City Department of Correction database search conducted on December 3, 2013 showed that § 87(2)(b) is not presently incarcerated.

To date, § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB regarding the incident. § 87(2)(g)
