Case Summary

On July 3, 2019, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint via email with IAB on behalf of herself and her § 87(2)(b) son, § 87(2)(b). The case was received by the CCRB on July 17, 2019 under log #19-26850. BWC footage has been requested and will be added to the digital case file upon receipt.

On July 19, 2019 and July 22, 2019, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) who, each time, asked for a callback later that day as he was at work and could not speak. On both days, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) back at a later time and reached automated messages stating the subscriber was unavailable; voicemails were unable to be left. On July 25, 2019, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) who stated that he wanted to speak with his attorney before providing a statement. The undersigned informed § 87(2)(b) that the case could be closed § 87(2)(g). § 87(2)(b) stated that he wanted to speak with his attorney and would call the undersigned back. On July 30, 2019, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) who stated he was at work and could not speak. From August 5, 2019 to August 22, 2019, three more calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) each time, the undersigned was unable to leave a voicemail. On August 22, 2019, § 87(2)(b) called the undersigned but when the undersigned stated her name and that she was from the CCRB, the call was dropped; an immediate callback resulted in an automated message that the subscriber was unavailable. On August 26, 2019, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) a male picked up and said, "Hello." When the undersigned asked to speak with § 87(2)(b) the call was disengaged; an immediate callback resulted in an automated message stating that the subscriber was unavailable.

Letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b) on July 22, 2019 and August 22, 2019. Neither of these letters have been returned by the US Postal Service.

From July 25, 2019 to August 22, 2019, four calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) each time, the undersigned left her a please call voicemail. No call was ever returned. On August 22, 2019, a please call letter was mailed and emailed to § 87(2)(b). The letter was not returned and the email was delivered successfully. On September 5, 2019, the undersigned left § 87(2)(b) a voicemail informing her that the case would be closed § 87(2)(g).

On September 5, 2019, a letter was mailed to both § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) informing them that the case would be closed § 87(2)(g); the letters also included a reopen request form, a self-addressed envelope, and instructions regarding how to reopen the case. § 87(2)(b) was emailed this letter as well. The email delivered successfully.

An ECOURTS search revealed that § 87(2)(b)'s next court date is on October 10, 2019.
