With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

A review of Police Officer Robert Campbell's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On March 19, 2009, Police Officer Robert Campbell had a substantiated departmental investigation which resulted in the filing of charges and specifications. He pled guilty to the charges and specifications and forfeited thirty (30) vacation days as a disciplinary penalty for the below-described conduct, namely: for failing to make memo book entries in response to a motor vehicle accident; for failing to follow proper DARP (Directed Accident Response Program) procedures by allowing a non-DARP tow truck company to remove a vehicle from the scene of a motor vehicle accident; for not issuing a notice of violation to the unauthorized towing company; and, for failing to give a proper radio disposition to the communications section.
1. On July 10, 2012, Police Officer Robert Campbell had a substantiated departmental investigation for failing to make a complete/accurate memo book entry. He received a Schedule B Command Discipline.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.
