Case Summary

On August 6, 2019, the CCRB received the following complaint from IAB via original log number 19-29088. IAB generated another complaint via original log number 19-29476 which became CCRB case § 87(2)(b) and was deemed a duplicate of this complaint. Both complaints were filed by § 87(2)(b) via phone. § 87(2)(b) has another complaint, case #§ 87(2)(b) which is also assigned to the undersigned. The CCRB is not in possession of any relevant video footage of this incident.

The complaint was assigned to Inv. Matveeva on August 8, 2019. On August 8, 2019, Inv. Matveeva attempted to contact § 87(2)(b) via phone and left a voicemail requesting a call-back. On August 18, 2019, this case was reassigned to the undersigned. When reached by telephone on August 19, 2019, § 87(2)(b) verified his contact information and requested a call-back later that afternoon. The undersigned called § 87(2)(b) back and left a message. On August 26, 2019, the undersigned obtained a phone statement from § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) requested time to decide how he wished to proceed with the complaint. When reached by telephone on August 28, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was scheduled for an interview at the CCRB on August 30, 2019 at 2 p.m. § 87(2)(b) did not appear for his interview.

When reached by telephone on September 4, 2019, § 87(2)(b) advised that he wished to withdraw his complaint because he is leaving New York City soon. § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he was making this decision on his own free will, and that he was not coerced into doing so by the CCRB or the NYPD. The undersigned informed § 87(2)(b) that he would receive a withdrawal letter, which was sent to him on the same day. The letter pertained to both case 201906929 and case § 87(2)(b). Investigative Manager Ethan De Angelo listened to the withdrawal recording, found in IA #37 at 2:30 minutes, and confirmed that it adhered to agency standards and guidelines. § 87(2)(g)
