CCRB Statement

[REDACTED] provided a statement at the CCRB on January 6, 2012 (encl. 15a-f). He declined to sign an unsealing order or HIPAA medical release form regarding this incident.

On November 30, 2011, at approximately 4:00pm, Mr. [REDACTED] drove to his friend [REDACTED] house at [REDACTED] in the Bronx so they could carpool to work together. He parked his car in front of a driveway approximately two houses down from Mr. [REDACTED] home and walked towards [REDACTED]. As he walked, a dark blue Ford Crown Victoria with three male passengers pulled up. Mr. [REDACTED] did not know that the passengers were police officers until later in the incident.

The officers were identified by the investigation as PO Daniel Nunez, PO [REDACTED] and Sgt. [REDACTED] all of the 47th Precinct. PO Nunez was described as [REDACTED]. Sgt. [REDACTED] was described as [REDACTED]. PO [REDACTED] was described as [REDACTED].

PO [REDACTED] asked Mr. [REDACTED] if he could ask him a question. Mr. [REDACTED] turned towards the officers' vehicle, stopped, replied "No," and continued walking toward [REDACTED] and another friend, [REDACTED] drove up in a vehicle together and parked in front of Mr. [REDACTED] house. PO [REDACTED] repeatedly told Mr. [REDACTED] to, "Come here," and Mr. [REDACTED] ignored him. Sgt. [REDACTED] and PO [REDACTED] followed Mr. [REDACTED] towards Mr. [REDACTED] home. PO Nunez approached Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED].

Mr. [REDACTED] opened the front door of Mr. [REDACTED] home, which was unlocked because Mr. [REDACTED] arrival was expected. He closed and locked the door behind him. Mr. [REDACTED] grandfather, [REDACTED] the owner of the home, was inside the kitchen. Mr. [REDACTED] did not believe that Mr. [REDACTED] was startled by his appearance, as he is often at the house.

Mr. [REDACTED] immediately “powerwalked” up the stairs beyond the front door of the house to look out the window to see what the officers were doing outside. It took him approximately one second to powerwalk to the top of the stairs. He heard banging on the front door, and then the door was kicked open. One or two officers entered the house. Mr. [REDACTED] was inside Mr. [REDACTED] bedroom on the second floor when officers entered the house. Later, he stated that he was at the top of the stairs when the officers entered.

After the door was opened, one or more officers said to Mr. [REDACTED] “Police! Get down. Where did he go?” Sgt. [REDACTED] ran upstairs and told Mr. [REDACTED] to freeze. Mr. [REDACTED] put both of his hands in the air and froze, and then Sgt. [REDACTED] pepper-sprayed him. At different times in his interview, Mr. [REDACTED] also stated that Sgt. [REDACTED] sprayed him continuously for approximately five seconds, as soon as he reached the top of the stairs, and that Sgt. [REDACTED] ran up the stairs, asked him why he ran, and then pepper-sprayed him. At another point, Mr. [REDACTED] stated that Sgt. [REDACTED] did not ask him why he ran until later, after he was pepper-sprayed and brought to the ground. Mr. [REDACTED] also stated that Sgt. [REDACTED] first pepper-sprayed him as he ran up the stairs towards him, and then sprayed him a second time once he reached the top of the stairs.

Sgt. [REDACTED] brought Mr. [REDACTED] to the ground and handcuffed him. Mr. [REDACTED] cut his right hand and scratched the right side of his right arm from scraping it on the railing when he went to the ground. Mr. [REDACTED] did not resist being handcuffed. Sgt. [REDACTED] called him a “fucking idiot” for running and told Mr. [REDACTED] to “shut the fuck up” when he tried to explain that he did not know they were police. PO [REDACTED] arrived from an unknown location and may have heard Sgt. [REDACTED] curse at him. Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] never entered the house.

Sgt. [REDACTED] and PO [REDACTED] walked Mr. [REDACTED] out to the police vehicle and placed him in the backseat, on the passenger side of the car. PO [REDACTED] rode next to Mr. [REDACTED] in the back of the vehicle and never had any physical contact with him during the incident. PO Nunez began to drive towards the 47th Precinct stationhouse. After they reached the end of Mr. [REDACTED] block, Sgt. [REDACTED] turned around from the passenger seat and told him, “Wait until we get to the precinct, I’m not done with you,” which Mr. [REDACTED] interpreted as a physical threat. Mr. [REDACTED] tried to explain again that he did not know they were police officers. Sgt. [REDACTED] repeated for him to “Shut the fuck up,” and to wait until they got to the Precinct stationhouse. While Sgt. [REDACTED] spoke, he swung an extendable black metal stick, identified by the investigation as an asp, from side to side at Mr. [REDACTED] face. On the first swing, Sgt. [REDACTED] hit Mr. [REDACTED] in the right side of his bottom lip. The impact was light, but was enough force to cause a small “bust” in Mr. [REDACTED] lip. On the second swing, Mr. [REDACTED] ducked his head and the asp did not make contact. Neither of the other officers or Mr. [REDACTED] reacted, and Mr. [REDACTED] was quiet the rest of the way to the stationhouse.

[REDACTED]

Mr. [REDACTED] was eventually brought to Bronx Central Booking where he was informed that the charges against him (drug possession and resisting arrest) had been dropped.

50-H Hearing Statement

██████████ provided a statement at his 50-H hearing on March 15, 2012 (encl. 15i-iii). The circumstances described by Mr. ██████████ are similar to those described in his CCRB statement, but some of the details differ. Therefore, his statement is summarized below.

Mr. ██████████ stated that he and Mr. ██████████ arrived at ██████████ in their vehicles at the same time. Mr. ██████████ parked his car across the street from ██████████ and Mr. ██████████ parked in front of ██████████. After Mr. ██████████ parked his car, he walked across the street towards Mr. ██████████ home at ██████████. As he walked, the vehicle later determined to belong to the officers pulled up and an officer in the back seat asked him to "come here." Mr. ██████████ did not know they were officers and ignored them as he continued to walk towards ██████████. Later in his statement, Mr. ██████████ stated that he was told to "come here" by an officer as he entered ██████████.

Mr. ██████████ walked up the stairs in front of Mr. ██████████ home before Mr. ██████████ exited his vehicle. Rather than wait for Mr. ██████████, Mr. ██████████ walked inside the house. In order to enter the house, Mr. ██████████ opened the unlocked metal security door, and then opened the unlocked front door and walked inside. He closed the front door behind him. Mr. ██████████ saw Mr. ██████████ cooking in the kitchen and said "hi grandpa" as he walked upstairs to Mr. ██████████ room, where they usually hang out. When he got to the top of the flight of approximately twenty stairs one or two seconds later, he heard banging on the door. The door "flew" open and Mr. ██████████ who had gone behind the door, was knocked over. Sgt. ██████████ entered with his pepper spray canister out and PO ██████████ had his gun out. Sgt. ██████████ told him to "Get the fuck to the floor," but before Mr. ██████████ could react, Sgt. ██████████ sprayed Mr. ██████████ all over the face with pepper spray from a distance of approximately four feet. PO ██████████ was one foot behind Sgt. ██████████ when Mr. ██████████ was pepper-sprayed. Then Mr. ██████████ was pushed to the floor, but he did not specify who did this. He scraped his left arm on the hinge of a door as he was going to the ground. When he got to the ground and was handcuffed, Sgt. ██████████ kicked him in the face and asked him why he ran.

Mr. ██████████ was brought outside and placed in the backseat of the officers' vehicle. After the officers started driving towards the 47th Precinct stationhouse, Sgt. ██████████ turned around in his seat and asked, "Why did you fucking run?" and hit Mr. ██████████ in the lip area with his asp, which was in a collapsed position, two times. This caused swelling but no break in the skin.

At the stationhouse, Mr. ██████████ was patted down and told to remove his pants and shoes. His shirt and underwear were left on. Mr. ██████████ did not specify who was involved in this process. At some point, Sgt. ██████████ told Mr. ██████████ that they found marijuana on him, as well as thirty bags of crack cocaine.

At Central Booking, Mr. ██████████ was told to remove his pants, shirt, shoes, and socks, but remained in his underwear. Mr. ██████████ missed two days of work as a result of the incident.

Phone Statement

[REDACTED] provided a phone statement on June 29, 2012 (encl. 18a-b). Mr. [REDACTED] drove up to his house and parked in front. His friend [REDACTED] was in the passenger seat of the car, although he owned the vehicle he let Mr. [REDACTED] drive it. Their friend [REDACTED] pulled up beside them, but then needed to find a parking space, so he continued driving ahead and pulled up in someone's driveway. When Mr. [REDACTED] got out of the car, he walked towards them. They saw a car driving up the block, which has been identified by the investigation as the police vehicle containing Sgt. [REDACTED] PO [REDACTED] and PO Nunez, and the car eventually stopped. By the time the car stopped, Mr. [REDACTED] had already walked into the yard in front of Mr. [REDACTED] home.

PO Nunez said, "Let me talk to you." Mr. [REDACTED] replied, "No," and asked why they wanted to talk to him. PO Nunez repeated that he wanted to talk to him quickly. Then all of the officers exited their vehicle. PO Nunez approached Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] and PO [REDACTED] and Sgt. [REDACTED] went after Mr. [REDACTED] PO [REDACTED] and Sgt. [REDACTED] went to Mr. [REDACTED] porch and instructed Mr. [REDACTED] to "come here." Mr. [REDACTED] went into the house. He gained entry because Mr. [REDACTED] grandfather, [REDACTED] thought Mr. [REDACTED] was Mr. [REDACTED] and opened the door for him. When Mr. [REDACTED] saw it was Mr. [REDACTED] he did not react in any way, because Mr. [REDACTED] is often at his house. He let Mr. [REDACTED] in, and locked the door behind him. Mr. [REDACTED] did not believe that his grandfather knew the police were outside.

After Mr. [REDACTED] entered the home, PO [REDACTED] and Sgt. [REDACTED] knocked on the door. Mr. [REDACTED] who had returned to the kitchen, where he resumed his cooking, went to the door and asked,

"Who is it?" The officers did not respond, and Sgt. [REDACTED] kicked down the door. The door hit Mr. [REDACTED] who fell backwards on the steps leading to the second floor of the house. Mr. [REDACTED] was right in front of his house when this occurred, approximately twenty to twenty five feet from the front door. He estimated that only thirty to sixty seconds elapsed between Mr. [REDACTED] entering the home and the door being kicked down, but he did not clarify how much of the officers' entry he witnessed and how much he learned from Mr. [REDACTED].

Mr. [REDACTED] told PO Nunez that it was not necessary to kick the door down, as he had the key on him. PO Nunez did not say anything. He told Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] to put their arms up, and patted Mr. [REDACTED] from his shoulders down. He flipped Mr. [REDACTED] front and back pants pockets and the front pocket of his hooded sweatshirt inside-out. PO Nunez then did the same to Mr. [REDACTED]. While this occurred, Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] asked why they were being stopped but did not receive a response. Mr. [REDACTED] heard officers inside his home yelling "get down," and heard Mr. [REDACTED] screaming.

Approximately one minute after the officers went inside, PO Nunez entered the home. Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] followed PO Nunez inside. Mr. [REDACTED] saw "mace" all over the wall, and the fumes burned his eyes. The "mace" looked like tomato sauce, and was on the walls from the entry to the house, all the way up the stairs to the bathroom. He believed that Mr. [REDACTED] had been handcuffed upstairs in the bathroom, but did not see it occur.

As the officers were leaving, Sgt. [REDACTED] turned to Mr. [REDACTED] and said something along the lines of, "This is what you get for fucking playing around." Mr. [REDACTED] asked what he was talking about. He and Sgt. [REDACTED] got in an argument and Sgt. [REDACTED] brandished his nightstick and said, "I'll bust your fucking head right now, keep talking shit." Mr. [REDACTED] asked Sgt. [REDACTED] who was going to fix his door, and Sgt. [REDACTED] told him to, "Ask your fucking friend." The officers then departed.

After the incident, Mr. [REDACTED] went to the 47th Precinct stationhouse and asked for a captain. He was brought to a back room and handcuffs were placed on him. After approximately one hour, he was released with a ticket for "obstructing justice."

Phone Statement

[REDACTED] provided a phone statement on September 5, 2012 (encl. 19a). [REDACTED] and his friend [REDACTED] drove to Mr. [REDACTED] house, where they parked out front. Mr. [REDACTED] was in the driver's seat and Mr. [REDACTED] was in the front passenger seat. Their friend [REDACTED] pulled up in his car at the same time, and he passed them and parked a bit ahead of them.

The officers stopped Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] by double parking their car next to theirs. As Mr. [REDACTED] exited the driver's seat and Mr. [REDACTED] exited the passenger's seat, the officers also exited their vehicle and approached them. Mr. [REDACTED] was not sure if the officers said anything to them, but believed that they may have said, "stop" or asked them where they were going. Then the officers noticed Mr. [REDACTED] who was crossing the street and walking towards Mr. [REDACTED] home. The officers seemed to become distracted and forget all about Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED].

Mr. [REDACTED] entered Mr. [REDACTED] home. PO Nunez patted Mr. [REDACTED] about the waist and hips and placed his hands in Mr. [REDACTED] left and right pants pockets. Mr. [REDACTED] was also frisked about the waist and hips, but he was not sure whether PO Nunez or another officer did so. Mr. [REDACTED] did not know if Mr. [REDACTED] was also searched.

The officers went to Mr. [REDACTED] home and started banging on the door. One of them tried to break a window in the door with a stick of some sort, but when that did not work, Sgt. [REDACTED] kicked down the door. All three officers went into the house, and the door hit Mr. [REDACTED] grandfather as it was kicked in.

Mr. [REDACTED] stayed outside and did not know what happened inside the house. Approximately three to four minutes later, Mr. [REDACTED] was escorted out of the house in handcuffs. Mr. [REDACTED] did not know why Mr. [REDACTED] was arrested, and stated that he did not think Mr. [REDACTED] had anything on him, and stated that he knew he did not have a gun. The officers sat Mr. [REDACTED] down on some bricks for a short time before placing him in their vehicle. Mr. [REDACTED] noticed that Mr. [REDACTED] eyes were very red. He did not know the cause at the time, but later learned from Mr. [REDACTED] that he had been pepper-sprayed.

Memo Book

At 4:30pm, there was one arrest at [REDACTED] by PO [REDACTED] (encl. 21a-b).

CCRB Statement

PO Nunez was interviewed on October 12, 2012 (encl. 21c-e). His statement was generally consistent with PO [REDACTED] and is summarized below.

PO Nunez and his team were driving on East 214th Street in the Bronx when they saw a group of approximately three young black males in jackets standing close together on the sidewalk, close to a car. It seemed unusual for a group of males to be standing so close to each other. PO Nunez, who was the operator of the vehicle, slowed the car down so it was even with the males and approximately one car-width away from them. He rolled down the window, identified himself as a police officer, and said something along the lines of, "Hey guys, is everything alright?"

PO Nunez never determined what the group was doing because around this time, a young male, later determined to be [REDACTED] walked away from the group, traveling east on the sidewalk of East 214th Street. PO Nunez could not tell if Mr. [REDACTED] had been part of the group or if he was just walking by.

As soon as PO Nunez identified himself as an officer, Mr. [REDACTED] turned his entire body away from PO Nunez, so that his back as to PO Nunez and to the street. He hunched his body forward and moved his hands towards the front of his waistband, and started running.

The officers all exited their vehicle. Sgt. [REDACTED] and PO [REDACTED] ran after Mr. [REDACTED] and told him to stop approximately ten times. He ignored them and continued to run towards a private house. PO Nunez stayed behind with the group of people.

Mr. [REDACTED] ran up to the house and started banging on the door and pulling on the knob, trying to get inside. PO Nunez was worried because there are numerous shootings and robberies in that area, so PO Nunez was scared for his safety and for the safety of whoever was behind the door. He noticed that Mr. [REDACTED] did not seem to have a key and he asked the people on the sidewalk, identified by the investigation as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] if any of them lived in the house Mr. [REDACTED] was trying to get into. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that he lived there. PO Nunez asked if Mr. [REDACTED] lived at that house too and if any of them knew what was going on. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that Mr. [REDACTED] did not live there, and he and Mr. [REDACTED] shrugged their shoulders to indicate that they did not know much else. During this time, PO Nunez did not communicate with his supervisor or partner. He did not remember frisking anyone, and denied searching anyone. PO Nunez denied that any of the other officers frisked or searched them.

Meanwhile, Mr. [REDACTED] continued to bang and tug on the door. Sgt. [REDACTED] and PO [REDACTED] caught up to him at the door, and Mr. [REDACTED] turned around and pushed Sgt. [REDACTED] in the chest, causing him to be propelled backwards. PO Nunez was afraid the sergeant would fall, but PO [REDACTED] was behind him and seemed to catch him. Later, PO Nunez learned that Sgt. [REDACTED] discharged his pepper spray after being pushed, but PO Nunez was still with the young men on the sidewalk at the time and did not witness this part. The pepper spray was released to prevent Mr. [REDACTED] from breaking into the house. PO Nunez did not know if the pepper spray affected Mr. [REDACTED] or not, and did not notice anything that indicated that he had been pepper sprayed.

Eventually, the door was opened, and PO Nunez believed that Mr. [REDACTED] had pushed the door open and pushed his way inside. At approximately this time, which PO Nunez estimated was approximately thirty seconds after Mr. [REDACTED] took off running, PO Nunez left the group and approached the house. PO Nunez did not remember if Mr. [REDACTED] closed the door behind him or not. He did recall there being some damage to the door, but did not remember what kind of damage it was. By the time he got to the front door, Mr. [REDACTED] PO [REDACTED] and Sgt. [REDACTED] were already inside the house. Inside the front door was an elderly man, [REDACTED] lying on the ground. Mr. [REDACTED] seemed very confused. PO Nunez and PO [REDACTED] helped Mr. [REDACTED] to his feet, and PO [REDACTED] went up the stairs in pursuit of Mr. [REDACTED]. Sgt. [REDACTED] was already upstairs.

PO Nunez ascertained that Mr. [REDACTED] was uninjured, and asked if he knew Mr. [REDACTED]. Mr. [REDACTED] said he did not, and then PO Nunez went upstairs as well. At some point, he heard an upstairs toilet flush. He later learned that Mr. [REDACTED] had tried to flush narcotics down the toilet, but was not successful. Sgt. [REDACTED] recovered a small amount of narcotics from the bathroom, and was the only one inside the bathroom with Mr. [REDACTED] when this occurred.

When PO Nunez got upstairs, Sgt. [REDACTED] already had Mr. [REDACTED] under control. Mr. [REDACTED] was rear handcuffed while PO Nunez was present. He did not remember what position Mr. [REDACTED] was in when handcuffed and did not remember if he was ever on the ground. Mr. [REDACTED] did struggle a bit while being handcuffed, by flailing his arms. Mr. [REDACTED] was instructed by PO Nunez and Sgt. [REDACTED] to provide his hands, but he did not respond to those instructions. However, it only took approximately five seconds to handcuff him. PO Nunez never brought Mr. [REDACTED] to the ground, but he believed it was possible that he was brought to the ground outside of the bathroom, when he was handcuffed. Once Mr. [REDACTED] was handcuffed, he was walked out of the house and brought to the patrol car. PO Nunez did not remember which of them escorted Mr. [REDACTED] out. Mr. [REDACTED] and Mr. [REDACTED] were still present outside, and never entered the home. They asked what was going on, and PO Nunez told them that Mr. [REDACTED] broke in and knocked over an old man.

Neither PO Nunez, nor any of the other officers hit Mr. [REDACTED] with a nightstick, asp, or anything else. None of them ever said anything like, "Wait till we get to the precinct, I'm not done with you," "Fucking idiot," or, "Shut the fuck up." PO Nunez had no further interaction with Mr. [REDACTED] at the stationhouse and did not encounter any of his family members.
