Details

On June 11, 2020 at 0427 hours, I received a call from complainant [REDACTED] who stated the following:

Complainant filed a 311 complaint against a FDNY fireman parking his personal vehicle illegally and requested it to be summonsed. The officers arrived at the scene and did not issue any summons and left because there was a FDNY placard on the vehicle. Once again the complainant requested to have the vehicle addressed. The officers returned and did not issue a summons but instead knew where the owner of the vehicle lived and knocked on the door and woke up the owner and the owner moved the vehicle. Complainant further stated that Officer Gomez (shield#4181) was rude and unprofessional. Complainant also mentioned that it was odd that the officers knew his first name even though he filed the complaint anonymously.
