Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) identified PO Jason Ragoo of the 109th Precinct by name as a subject officer in his original complaint which was made via the CCRB's Call Processing System. During a phone conversation with Inv. Richardson on January 14, 2013, § 87(2)(b) stated that he visually confirmed PO Ragoo's identity during the incident, but he did not specify exactly how. § 87(2)(b) also stated in his original complaint that there were three other officers involved in the incident but he did not identify them by name, shield number, or command. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

Between October 17, 2012 and February 25, 2013, the CCRB placed eight calls and sent two letters to § 87(2)(b). On January 14, 2013, Inv. Richardson spoke with § 87(2)(b) but an appointment for an interview was not scheduled. Five additional calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) leaving detailed voicemails on each occasion. During the final voicemail left on February 25, 2013, the undersigned advised § 87(2)(b) to call the undersigned back no later than February 27, 2013, or his case could be closed without a full investigation. A final please call letter was sent to § 87(2)(b) via mail and e-mail on February 14, 2013. None of the letters sent to § 87(2)(b) were returned by the U.S. Postal Service. To date, § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the undersigned to schedule an appointment.
