Synopsis

§ 87(2)(g) Sup. Inv. Ass. Jeffrey Rios reviewed the tape-recording of the conversation between complainant § 87(2)(b) and Investigator Santiago. The complainant indicated that she wanted to "drop the case" because she did not have the time.

Summary of Complaint

Following details were obtained from phone conversation with complainant:

Complaint was received from IAB log #9915308. § 87(2)(b) stated the subject officers kicked in her front door causing damage to the locks. She was not home at the time of the incident. Apparently the officers had her cellular phone number and could have contacted her before kicking in the door. The officers were at her home while searching for her nephew because she had placed a complaint regarding her nephew.

While the officers were at her home, the officers called her on her cellular phone and asked her if she was home. She informed them that she was obviously not at home. § 87(2)(b) stated that the door had to be replaced.

Results of Investigation

In order to interview the complainant, § 87(2)(b) scheduled an appointment on September 17th for September 24 at 1pm. § 87(2)(b) did not appear for her appointment nor did she call to cancel and or reschedule. A letter was sent to her addressing her missed appointment and the request to contact me.

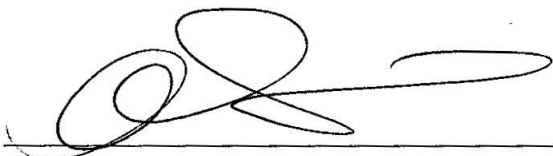

On October 8, 1999 § 87(2)(b) was contacted and she stated that she wished to drop the case because she just did not have the time. She stated that she wished to close and it was of her free will.

Conclusions and Recommendations

Allegation A) Abuse of Authority: DT3 Stephen Lore damaged property belonging to § 87(2)(b).
Allegation B) Abuse of Authority: PO Jeffrey Brienza damaged property belonging to § 87(2)(b).

In order to interview the complainant, an appointment was scheduled at the convenience to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) did not appear for her scheduled appointment nor did she call to cancel and or reschedule. On October 8, 1999 she stated to Investigator that she wished to drop her case for she did not have the time to pursue. She was informed that a letter would be sent to her and if she could sign it and return it in the self addressed envelope provided. Once the signed withdrawal form is received, it will be respectively filed within case.
