DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated allegations that (A) on and about and between January 1, 2-15 and October 4, 2017, Richard Baboolal wrongfully and knowingly associated with a person reasonably believed to be engaged in, likely to engage in, or to have engaged in, criminal activities; and on or about June 14, 2017, Richard Baboolal wrongly provided evasive, inaccurate or misleading statements to the NYPD during a Department interview. This related to Richard Baboolal's use of a Department computer system in February 2015 to make an unauthorized inquiry into a person's arrest on that date and thereafter speaking on the phone to that person. In connection with the investigation of the matter, Richard Baboolal told the investigators in substance that the person was only an acquaintance and that he did not know about the person's criminal background, even though he had run the unauthorized inquiry on the arrest prior to the Department interview. Later in the interview he stated that the person had told him of two arrests.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
