DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about August 12, 2010, Thomas Day did fail to notify the Internal Affairs Bureau that another police officer was unable to properly secure his/her firearm, and that said firearm was removed from that officer's locker and moved to the precinct lounge area without the officer's knowledge.
2. The New York Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about April 19, 2012, Thomas Day failed to appear for a Traffic Violations Bureau Court appearance.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
