

he observed [REDACTED] fail to signal and fail to maintain a driving lane, as it was not immediately apparent when said traffic violations occurred on the dash cam video. Contrary to Police Officer Lamb's notations in his Memo Book that [REDACTED] was stopped for failing to signal while leaving a parking space, and failing to maintain lane almost hitting the curb and a parked vehicle (emphasis added), Police Officer Lamb advised ADA Enwereuzor of the following: « [REDACTED] failed to maintain a lane.as she drove down [REDACTED] [REDACTED] failed to signal when she pulled over to the curb in front of 441 Kissel Avenue Upon review of the video recovered from the Radio Motor Patrol vehicle driven by Police Officer Lamb on December 23, 2016, the following was noted: Contrary to Officer Lamb's assertions to ADA Enwereuzor that [REDACTED] failed to maintain a lane as she drove down Kissel Avenue and failed to signal when she pulled over to the curb in front of 441 Kissel Avenue, the dash cam video recorded footage appears to show that Police Officer Lamb began pursuing [REDACTED] in order to effectuate the car stop immediately following her departure from the parking spot at the corner of Forest Avenue and Kissel Avenue.

d. PO Hameed Assaidi

- i. 12/24/2015- substantiated claim of misuse of time on straight time. CD issued.
- ii. 03/21/2019-substantiated claim of invoice discrepancy. Received verbal instructions.
- iii. Fernandez and Tineo v. City of New York-12-cv-02841- false arrest case settled and dismissed for $15,000 without admission of wrongdoing.
- iv. Brown v. Acierno-14-cv-03300- false arrest case settled and dismissed for $60,000 without admission of wrongdoing.

g. PO Kevin Geoghegan

- i. Graham v. City of New York-14-cv-02270- false arrest case settled and dismissed with no admission of wrongdoing.