With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: in a discussion with Police Officer James Piscopo during trial preparation, the officer indicated that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, he believed that he was sued one time, he testified at a jury trial of the matter and believed he had been dismissed as a defendant.

As a result of the conversation with Officer Piscopo, on July 12, 2018, the People performed a simple name search of the Public Access to Court Electronic Records ["PACER"] website, and found the following case which list this James Piscopo as a civil defendant together with the "City of New York" in cases in the Eastern or Southern Districts of New York:

1. Gambino v. City of New York et al., 1:09-CV-04292-CBA-LB, settled in 2010 for an amount of $6,500.00, with stipulation of settlement filed ending litigation and without admission of fault or liability;
2. Gaffney v. City of New York et al., 1:10-CV-01192-MKB-RER, following a jury trial in January 2012 the plaintiff's claims against Officer Piscopo were dismissed and he was removed as a defendant in the action;
3. Blackburn v. City of New York et al., 1:13-CV-05116-WFK-RER, settled in 2014 for an undisclosed amount, with stipulation of settlement filed ending litigation with prejudice and without admission of fault or liability;
