DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. Julian Febres is a named defendant in the civil action Timothy Mills v. City of New York et. al., docket number 13 CV 5939, filed in the Southern District of New York for an incident that occurred on September 3, 2012.
2. The New York Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated the allegation that on or about April 12, 2016, Julian Febres committed the Minor Procedural Violation of Fail to Complete Stop Report.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (NYPD) (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>).

Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory. For some NYPD disciplinary matters in which a departmental trial was held for an officer, the decision in the trial is included in the NYPD database under the “Documents” tab for that officer.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
