Case Summary

On October 25, 2012, Sgt. Robert Mosca of PSA 3 filed this complaint on behalf of § 87(2)(b) with IAB, generating Log 12-56760. IAB forwarded the complaint to the CCRB on December 10, 2012. § 87(2)(b) stated that on October 24, 2012, at approximately 11:00 p.m., he was “choked” and searched by Sgt. Daniel Campbell (Allegations A and B). A physical force allegation was pleaded instead of a chokehold, as § 87(2)(b) did not specify if his breathing had been restricted by this action. Because Sgt. Campbell is identified by name and Tax ID number on the IAB log, allegations A and B are pleaded against him.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a telephone number and address from where he could be contacted. The number he provided was called on December 11, 2012. A female answered the telephone and stated that the undersigned had dialed the wrong number. The undersigned confirmed that the number as listed in the IAB log, had been dialed correctly. On December 11, 2012, a Lexis search yielded multiple results for § 87(2)(b). These numbers were contacted between December 26, 2012, and January 16, 2013. Two numbers were found to be out of service, four listings were wrong numbers and the final two numbers were called seven times without answer. Voicemails were left with each call for one of these numbers. The other number did not have a voicemail prompt. On December 26, 2012, a Yellowpages.com search yielded a different address and telephone number for § 87(2)(b). The number was not in service. A Whitepages.com search for § 87(2)(b) performed on this date did not yield any additional telephone numbers.

§ 87(2)(b) was sent two letters to the address he provided on the IAB log between January 14, 2013, and February 5, 2013. These letters have not been returned by United States Postal Service.

§ 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB as of the date this report was written. On February 5, 2013, a search of the Department of Correction website showed that § 87(2)(b) was not incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
