Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via telephone on February 18, 2020.

On February 8, 2019, at approximately 10:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) exited the 191st Street subway station in Manhattan, after a physical dispute with § 87(2)(b) on the subway platform. Officers from the 34th Precinct responded to a report of the dispute and encountered § 87(2)(b) at Saint Nicholas Avenue between West 191st Street and West 192nd Street. Officer John Bonhomme approached § 87(2)(b) and grabbed § 87(2)(b) by his open jacket (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). Officer Bonhomme patted § 87(2)(b)'s upper body and his waist area (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) had two upper pockets located on his jacket that were closed by a zipper. Officer Bonhomme unzipped § 87(2)(b)'s upper left pocket and removed two pills from the pocket (Allegation C: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)). Officer Bonhomme, Officer Carlos Pages, Officer Howard Peralta and other officers forcibly moved § 87(2)(b) to the ground and several officers punched and kicked § 87(2)(b) while he was on the ground (Allegations D-F: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Officer Boylan arrived and used a hand strike against § 87(2)(b) while he was on the ground (Allegation G: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Unidentified officers punched § 87(2)(b) in the back of the head (Allegation H: Force, § 87(2)(g)). One or more officers told § 87(2)(b) "Get on the fucking ground" (Allegation I: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) was arrested § 87(2)(b).

The investigation obtained BWC (Body Worn Camera) footage from several officers (BR02-BR11), which have been summarized (BR12-BR20).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer John Bonhomme stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer John Bonhomme frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer John Bonhomme searched § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on March 6, 2020 (BR01). On February 8, 2019, at approximately 10:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) exited the 191st Street subway station in Manhattan after having a physical and verbal dispute with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) followed § 87(2)(b) while speaking on the phone. § 87(2)(b) ran away from § 87(2)(b). He saw several police cars drive past. When § 87(2)(b) was at Saint Nicholas Avenue between West 191st Street and West 192nd Street, § 87(2)(b) signaled to a passing police vehicle and spoke with the officers, including a uniformed white male officer in his 30s who was approximately 5'9"-5'10" with a stocky build and wearing a skullcap. This officer was identified by the investigation as Officer John Bonhomme. § 87(2)(b) was on the opposite side of the street and could not hear their conversation. § 87(2)(b) raised his hands in the hair, and stated loudly, "I'm right here." Officer Bonhomme ran toward § 87(2)(b) and grabbed § 87(2)(b) by his open jacket. Officer Bonhomme told § 87(2)(b) that they had received a call from § 87(2)(b) stating that he had assaulted her. Officer Bonhomme asked § 87(2)(b) "Can I pat you down?" § 87(2)(b) told Officer Bonhomme to "go ahead." Officer Bonhomme patted § 87(2)(b)'s upper body and his waist area. Officer Bonhomme unzipped § 87(2)(b)'s upper left jacket pocket and removed two pills from the pocket. Officer Bonhomme put the pills back in § 87(2)(b)'s pocket. Officer Bonhomme never asked § 87(2)(b) if he could enter his pocket.

Officer John Bonhomme was interviewed by the CCRB on September 2, 2020 (BR21). Officer

Bonhomme received a call over the radio regarding a civilian female member of service who had been assaulted by a male in the subway. Officer Bonhomme and other team members arrived at Wadsworth Avenue and 191st Street in Manhattan at approximately 10:49 p.m. At this location, Officer Bonhomme spoke with the female caller. The caller raised her arm and pointed at § 87(2)(b) stating, "That's him right there." Officer Bonhomme stated that he had probable cause to arrest § 87(2)(b) due to the identification, but that additional work was required to complete the arrest because § 87(2)(b) attempted to flee by walking away from the scene. Officer Bonhomme, Officer Pages, Officer Peralta, and other officers approached § 87(2)(b) and told him to stop. § 87(2)(b) was walking away from officers when they told him to stop; § 87(2)(b) complied with their order. Officer Bonhomme may have searched § 87(2)(b) or it may have been other officers. Officer Bonhomme stated this search occurred after § 87(2)(b) was taken to the ground and was under arrest. No officer frisked or searched § 87(2)(b) prior to § 87(2)(b) being taken to the ground.

Officer Bonhomme recorded BWC footage of this incident (BR02, summarized in BR12). The footage begins with Officer Bonhomme seated in the front passenger seat of a police vehicle. The police vehicle is in motion and its turret lights appear to be flashing. At 0:26 minutes, Officer Bonhomme exits the vehicle. Officer Bonhomme begins running down a street. Audio begins at 0:30 minutes. At 0:30 minutes, Officer Bonhomme makes contact with an individual identified by the investigation as § 87(2)(b)'s hands are raised. At 0:30 minutes, an unidentified officer says, "Get down on the ground." At 0:37 minutes, Officer Bonhomme's left hand holds § 87(2)(b)'s right arm, just below his armpit. At 0:40 minutes, an unidentified officer holds the back of § 87(2)(b)'s neck with their hand. At 0:40 minutes, one or more unidentified officers says, "Get on the fucking ground." At 0:42 minutes, one or more officer holds § 87(2)(b)'s left arm and lifts it away from the ground. At approximately 0:45 minutes, § 87(2)(b) is depicted laying on the ground. During this time, an officer informs the others that he has § 87(2)(b)'s arm. At 0:50 minutes, Officer Bonhomme says, "Stop resisting bro. Stop resisting. Stop resisting" and at approximately 1:00 minute an officer tells § 87(2)(b) to place his arms behind his back. From 0:42 minutes to 1:12 minutes, Officer Bonhomme's BWC is obscured, and the exact actions of the officers is not clear. At 1:12 minutes, Officer Bonhomme stands up and moves away from § 87(2)(b). When Officer Bonhomme disengages physical contact with § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) is restrained on the floor. § 87(2)(b) is not seen for the remainder of the footage. At 1:12 minutes, Officer Bonhomme says, "Where is she? She just pointed; she was right there. She's over here, she's over here, sarge." At 1:42 minutes, PO Bonhomme says, "She's right here. She pointed him out."

Several other officers recorded BWC footage of this incident. However, Officer Bonhomme's footage most clearly depicts the physical interaction between officers and § 87(2)(b). No other footage depicts any frisks or searches or the handcuffing of § 87(2)(b).

Probable cause is established, absent materially impeaching circumstances where "the victim of an offense communicates to the arresting officer information affording a credible ground for believing the offense was committed and identifies the accused as the perpetrator" People v. Jackson, 105 A.D.3d 866, 962 N.Y.S.2d 679, 2013 N.Y. App. Div. LEXIS 2357, 2013 NY Slip Op 2414, 2013 WL 1442575 (BR28).

If a police officer is authorized to arrest an individual, then they are similarly authorized to perform a search of that individual's person incidentally thereto. People v. Valentine, 1995 N.Y. App. Div. LEXIS 10594, 220 A.D.2d 708, 632 N.Y.S.2d 663 (BR30).

All parties affirm that after § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) had a verbal and physical altercation, § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) pointed to § 87(2)(b) while speaking with Officer Bonhomme and verbally indicated that § 87(2)(b) was the perpetrator of an offense. Additionally, § 87(2)(b) stated that he waved his arms in order to communicate to officers that he was the individual who they were seeking. As per Jackson, § 87(2)(b)'s identification of § 87(2)(b) as the perpetrator gave officers probable cause to arrest § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) reported that he was not immediately placed under arrest when officers approached him. BWC footage shows that § 87(2)(b) attempted to flee and was physically detained by officers who then sought to have § 87(2)(b) confirm her identification of § 87(2)(b) as her assailant. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) reported that he was frisked and searched before being handcuffed and before he was taken to the ground. PO Bonhomme's BWC shows that officers physically engaged with § 87(2)(b) immediately after they approached him, that he was on the ground with 15 seconds of the approach, and that officers attempted to place him in handcuffs immediately after he was brought to the ground. While the entirety of the handcuffing process is not visible from Officer Bonhomme's BWC footage, the footage does depict the initial approach § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (D) Force: Police Officer John Bonhomme used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

Allegation (E) Force: Police Officer Carlos Pages used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

Allegation (F) Force: Police Officer Howard Peralta used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

In his statement to the CCRB, § 87(2)(b) stated that after he was searched by Officer Bonhomme, an officer approached § 87(2)(b) from behind and instructed him to place his hands behind his back. § 87(2)(b) complied and put his hands behind his back. An officer handcuffed § 87(2)(b)'s right wrist but was unable to handcuff § 87(2)(b)'s left wrist because § 87(2)(b) was wearing a wristwatch and a silver chain bracelet. § 87(2)(b) told the officers to remove his jewelry. An officer told § 87(2)(b) that he was "resisting arrest" and again instructed him to place his hands behind his back. § 87(2)(b) told the officers that his hands were already behind his back. An officer put his right foot in front of § 87(2)(b)'s feet, which caused § 87(2)(b) to trip. The same officer then pressed the entirety of his body weight against § 87(2)(b). The combination of these two actions caused § 87(2)(b) to fall on the ground, where he landed face first on the ground. § 87(2)(b) lifted his head off the ground, and he felt approximately six punches to the back of his head. § 87(2)(b) did not know who was administering these punches but stated that at least four officers were involved in some way. While officers were punching § 87(2)(b) felt officers' knee and/or kicking him in the side of his stomach, near his ribs. § 87(2)(b) did not know which officers were doing this. § 87(2)(b) sustained a cut over his right eyebrow and swelling to both of his eyes because of this encounter. § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

Officer Bonhomme testified that Officer Pages, Officer Peralta, himself, and other officers approached § 87(2)(b). Officer Bonhomme told § 87(2)(b) to get on the ground. Officer Bonhomme told § 87(2)(b) more than once to get on the ground. § 87(2)(b) said, "No" and tensed his arm and body muscles. Officer Bonhomme grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s right arm. Officer Peralta grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s left arm. As the officers grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s arms, § 87(2)(b)'s face struck Officer Bonhomme in the face. Officer Bonhomme stated the headbutt may have been intentional, but he was not sure. Officer Bonhomme and Officer Peralta each grabbed one of § 87(2)(b)'s arms, folded his body over, and pushed him to the ground. § 87(2)(b) continued to tense his muscles to prevent himself from being handcuffed. After § 87(2)(b) was on the ground, it took Officer Bonhomme and other officers approximately ten to fifteen seconds to secure § 87(2)(b)'s hands in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) continued to tense his muscles and attempt to resist officers' attempts to place him in handcuffs. Officer Bonhomme brought § 87(2)(b)'s right arm fully behind his back. Officer Bonhomme did not punch § 87(2)(b) in the head, or in any other area. Officer Bonhomme did not observe any officer use any hand or foot strike against § 87(2)(b) at any point on his body.

Officer Pages was interviewed at the CCRB on November 16, 2020 (BR22). After officers removed handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) moved his arms around to prevent himself from being handcuffed. After putting their hands on § 87(2)(b)'s arms and chest, multiple officers conducted a forcible takedown of § 87(2)(b). Officer Pages did not observe if § 87(2)(b)'s head struck the curb as a result of the takedown. Officer Pages moved towards where § 87(2)(b) was on the ground. § 87(2)(b) was face-down on the ground, with his head near the curb. § 87(2)(b) tensed his arm muscles and moved his arms around. Officer Pages pulled on one of § 87(2)(b)'s arms, and another officer eventually placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs. While § 87(2)(b) was on the ground, Officer Pages did not recall observing any officer strike § 87(2)(b) with their hand or foot. Officer Pages did not himself strike § 87(2)(b) with his hand or foot.

Officer Peralta was interviewed at the CCRB on April 28, 2021 (BR23). Officer Peralta did not recall the incident. Officer Peralta did not recall the nature or circumstances of the stop or arrest of § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) did not recall interacting with § 87(2)(b) and did not recall using or observing other officers use force directed at § 87(2)(b). Officer Peralta was shown BWC footage from Officer Bonhomme, which did not refresh his recollection of the incident.

As stated earlier, Officer Bonhomme's BWC footage depicts Officer Bonhomme making physical contact with § 87(2)(b) while § 87(2)(b)'s hands are raised. Officer Bonhomme's BWC is moving in a stuttering manner and is periodically obstructed, and so does not clearly depict the nature of the physical contact. Several officers are present in the immediate vicinity of § 87(2)(b). At 0:30 minutes, PO Bonhomme says, "Relax, relax, relax." At 0:30 minutes, an unidentified officer says, "Get down on the ground, get down on the ground, get down on the ground, get down on the ground." At 0:32 minutes, § 87(2)(b) says, "Nah I don't gotta get on the ground.” At 0:42 minutes, one or more officer holds § 87(2)(b) s left arm and lifts it away from the ground. At 0:50 minutes, Officer Bonhomme says, “Stop resisting bro, stop resisting. Stop resisting.” From 0:42 minutes to 1:12 minutes, Officer Bonhomme’s BWC is obscured, and it is not possible to determine what is happening. At 1:12 minutes, Officer Bonhomme stands up and disengages with § 87(2)(b) is not seen for the remainder of the footage. At 1:50 minutes, PO Bonhomme says to a plainclothes female officer, “I got hit in the nose.” The plainclothes female officer responds but her response is inaudible. PO Bonhomme says, “I think, I don’t know, he headbutted me or something.” § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b)

Officer John Bonhomme completed a Threat Resistance and Injury (TRI) report (BR29). The report states that § 87(2)(b) wrestled/grappled with officers, pushed/shoved officers, and headbutted officers. The report does not list § 87(2)(b) using any other type of force against officers. The report states that officers were injured attempting to apprehend/control § 87(2)(b) The report states that force was used by officers, specifically a forcible takedown. The report does not list officers using any other type of force against § 87(2)(b) The report lists the following reasons that officers used force against § 87(2)(b) fleeing suspect, defense of self, overcome resistance or aggression, and defense of other members of service. The report lists § 87(2)(b) suffering minor contusions because of intentional actions taken by officers.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that his hands were behind his back in compliance with officer instructions, and that officers had difficulty handcuffing him not due to his physical actions but because jewelry on his left wrist complicated the efforts of police officers to handcuff him. Officer Pages stated that after officers removed handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) moved his arms around to prevent himself from being handcuffed. Officer Bonhomme stated that after he told § 87(2)(b) more than once to get on the ground, § 87(2)(b) said, “No” and tensed his arm and body muscles. BWC footage of the encounter does not capture any statements about § 87(2)(b) s jewelry or about difficulty handcuffing § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (G) Force: Police Officer Daniel Boylan used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Officer Boylan was interviewed at the CCRB on June 22, 2021. Officer Boylan arrived on scene after receiving a radio communication that stated that officers were in need of assistance. When Officer Boylan arrived, he saw § 87(2)(b) on the ground on his stomach “actively resisting” being placed in handcuffs, which Officer Boylan described as not giving officers his hands. Officer Boylan did not recall what § 87(2)(b) was doing with his hands, only that officers were struggling to obtain control of them. At the beginning of his CCRB interview while reading his memo book entries, Officer Boylan stated that he used a hand strike against § 87(2)(b) to overcome his resistance. Officer Boylan did not know where on § 87(2)(b) s body he struck with his hand. Officer Boylan did not recall the specific nature of the hand strike. Officer Boylan did not have an independent recollection of the hand strike. Officer Boylan only knew about the hand strike because it was mentioned in the TRI report that he prepared and his memo book entry. In his CCRB interview, Officer Boylan stated that he did not record footage of the interaction on his BWC because he was signing out of his tour at the time he received a radio call and had already changed from uniform into plainclothes.

Officer Boylan completed a Memo Book entry (Board Review 33) in which he wrote the following: “10-13 officer in need of assistance at W[est] 190 Street and St. Nicholas Avenue updated to Wadsworth and West 190 Street. I did observe [defendant] § 87(2)(b) actively resisting refusing to give officers his hands and I did use a hand strike to overcome resistance and place defendant under arrest.”

Officer Boylan completed a TRI (Board Review 32). In the report, he noted that he used a hand strike, and that the force was used in defense of self and other members of service, and to overcome resistance or aggression.

In his testimony, Officer Bonhomme estimated that there were ten officers on scene when § 87(2)(b) pointed to § 87(2)(b). Officer Bonhomme testified that it took Officer Bonhomme and other officers approximately ten to fifteen seconds to secure § 87(2)(b)'s hands in handcuffs after taking him to the ground.

Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01 (Board Review 27) explains that in all circumstances, any application or use of force must be reasonable under the circumstances. When appropriate and consistent with personal safety, members of the service will use de-escalation techniques to safely gain voluntary compliance from a subject to reduce or eliminate the necessity to use force. In situations in which this is not safe and/or appropriate, [members of service] will use only the reasonable force necessary to gain control or custody of a subject. When determining whether the use of force is reasonable, members of service should consider the following:

- a. The nature and severity of the crime / circumstances
- b. Actions taken by the subject
- c. Duration of the action
- d. Immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of the service, and / or bystanders
- e. Whether the subject is actively resisting custody
- f. Whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight
- g. Number of subjects in comparison to the [members of service]
- h. Size, age, and condition of the subject in comparison to the members of service
- i. Subject's violent history, if known
- j. Presence of hostile crowd or agitators
- k. Subject apparently under the influence of a stimulant / narcotic which would affect pain tolerance or increase the likelihood of violence

The following factors are relevant to making a determination about the reasonableness of Officer Boylan's hand strike: the actions taken by the subject; the duration of the action; the number of subjects in comparison to the number of officers; and the immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of the service, and or bystanders.

As per Officer Boylan's testimony, § 87(2)(b) was on his stomach on the ground when Officer Boylan used a hand strike against him. As per Officer Bonhomme's testimony, it took officers approximately 10-15 seconds to secure § 87(2)(b)'s hands in handcuffs, and approximately 10 officers were present at the location before Officer Boylan and another officer arrived. § 87(2)(b) was the only subject of police activity at the location. According to Officer Boylan, other than not presenting his hands to officers so that he could be immediately placed in handcuffs, Officer Boylan did not articulate any action that § 87(2)(b) took in response to being handcuffed. Officer Bonhomme confirmed that § 87(2)(b) tensed his arms to prevent himself from being handcuffed. While Officer Bonhomme reported that § 87(2)(b) headbutted him, Officer Bonhomme stated that he was not certain that this act was intentional, and Officer Boylan did not report to the CCRB that he was aware this action had occurred. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (H) Force: Officers used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

As noted above, § 87(2)(b) reported that he was punched in the back of the head six times, but he was not able to identify the officer or officers who performed these actions.

As stated earlier, Officer Bonhomme did not observe any officer use any hand or foot strike against § 87(2)(b) at any point on his body, and Officer Peralta did not recall using or observing other officers use force directed at § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (I) Discourtesy: Officers spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

As stated earlier, at 0:40 minutes in Officer Bonhomme's BWC footage (BR02, summarized in BR12), one or more unidentified officers says, "Get on the fucking ground."

BWC footage recorded of the incident does not show which officer or officer made this statement.
