Case Summary

On January 28, 2014, Sergeant Anne Marie Murphy called the IAB Command Center to report that § 87(2)(b) was injured while in custody. The CCRB received IAB log number 2014-3615 on February 3, 2014.

Searches of the Department of Correction for New York City and New York State found that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated. A letter was sent to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) on February 3, 2014. On February 11, 2014, the investigator received a voicemail from § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) in response to the letter she received. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that she did not have a telephone number at which she could be reached, but would call back on a later date. Two additional letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) on February 25, 2014, and April 14, 2014. Between the dates of March 6, 2014, and April 14, 2014, five calls were made to the number which § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) had called from in her voicemail. The automated message stated that the number belonged to § 87(2)(b). Three voicemails were left. The voice mailbox was full for two of the calls. On March 13, 2014, the investigator received a phone call from § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b), but because it was difficult to hear her, she stated that she would call back from another number. The investigator did not receive any phone calls from § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) after March 13, 2014.

A search of LexisNexis confirmed the address from the IAB log, but revealed a new apartment number, as well as an email address for § 87(2)(b). An email was sent to § 87(2)(b) on April 7, 2014, but was undeliverable, and a letter was sent to the address provided by LexisNexis on April 14, 2014. The letters were not returned to the CCRB by the US Postal Service. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)
