DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about April 15, 2018, Lauren Leggio violated other department rules and procedures in that she failed to properly document in Department records the return of one hundred dollars in currency to a prisoner known to the Department resulting in a discrepancy regarding prisoner property.
2. As of November 10, 2020, the New York City Police Department (NYPD) has a pending investigation of Lauren Leggio involving an Off Duty Incident (Not Domestic) and Police Action (Not Arrest).

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
