Case Summary

On December 6, 2017, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB by phone, and was scheduled for an interview at the CCRB on December 7, 2017.

On December 7, 2017, § 87(2)(b) appeared for his interview. When § 87(2)(b) was informed that the CCRB file may be disclosed pursuant to a subpoena, § 87(2)(b) elected not to provide a statement as the criminal case against him stemming from the incident remained open. § 87(2)(b) said he would contact the investigation whenever he felt ready to pursue the complaint. § 87(2)(b) was informed that the complaint could not be kept open indefinitely. § 87(2)(b) became irate and left the CCRB.

Between December 13, 2017, and December 15, 2017, two calls were made to § 87(2)(b). Each time, § 87(2)(b) said he was busy and promised to call back, but failed to do so.

On December 22, 2017, a please call letter was sent to § 87(2)(b) which was not returned as undeliverable.

On December 26, 2017, a third call was made to § 87(2)(b) who said he was not ready to pursue the complaint because he “had a lot of shit going on with the police right now.” When the option of closing the case as withdrawn or uncooperative was explained to § 87(2)(b) he elected to close the complaint as uncooperative rather than withdraw it. The process of reopening the complaint was also explained to § 87(2)(b).

On December 27, 2017, a second letter and an email were sent to § 87(2)(b) with instructions on how to submit a reopen request, which are yet to be returned as undeliverable.
