With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time officer Emmanuel Rosario has been employed by the New York City Police Department, that he has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in several state lawsuits.

1. Mathurin, Muck M. Vs. City Of New York 0306502/2014 which is still pending in the Bronx Supreme Court.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On June 29, 2010 Officer Rosario had a substantiated departmental investigation for failure to complete entries in his activity log after conducting an unauthorized inquiry using department computers for personal purposes for which he forfeited two (2) vacation days.
2. On April 25, 2014 Officer Rosario had a substantiated departmental investigation for
