On Tuesday 01/07/2020 at 1554 hours ,I spoke with [REDACTED] who reported the following:

C/V states on 12/31/19 she called police to her location because her parked vehicle was side swiped and the driver was still on the scene. C/V stated two male officers responded but only took C/V's information, not the other driver's because she did not have her drivers license. C/V stated S/O's also discovered that the other drivers temporary plates did not match her vehicle, tags on the vehicle were invalid, the vehicle was not registered or insured and the vehicle was only operating with its hand break. C/V stated the officers treated the female driver as if she was victim because she was crying, failed to issue her a summons and let her leave with out obtaining her information. C/V stated the officers reassured C/V that an accident report would be prepared however when C/V's husband went to the precinct on 1/3/20 there was not report in the system. C/V further stated today her husband called the precinct to inquire about the status of the accident report but was yelled at by an unknown Sergeant who stated her husband would not be getting an accident report.
