Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) filed a complaint with IAB on March 20, 2010, which was received by the CCRB on March 26, 2010 (enc. 6). The following summary was obtained through a combination of the statements obtained by the CCRB: On March 20, 2010, at approximately 5:30 PM, PO Daniel Tirado and PO Frank Zappulla, both assigned to PSA4, approached § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) on the § 87(2)(b) of § 87(2)(b). The officers handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and brought him outside, where several backing units interacted with a crowd of civilians. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were both arrested by PO Tirado for obstructing governmental administration and resisting arrest. § 87(2)(b) was also arrested, but was released with a summons for disorderly conduct. § 87(2)(b) was arrested by PO Daniel Silverio, assigned to the 9th Precinct, for disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. A duplicate complaint, #201004108, filed by § 87(2)(b) was investigated and closed out as complaints withdrawn, before this investigation was concluded (enc. 7). The following allegations resulted from the officers' actions:

- Allegation A- Abuse of Authority: PO Frank Zappulla stopped § 87(2)(b). A § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g). It is recommended that Allegation A be closed as exonerated.

Results of Investigation

Civilian Statement(s)

Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the § 87(2)(b) on May 18, 2010 (enc. 9). On March 20, 2010, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (his brother) approached their family's apartment § 87(2)(b), inside of § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) (his sister) stood in the doorway and § 87(2)(b) grabbed her hand. PO Zappulla and PO Tirado approached the three civilians and PO Zappulla told them all to stop moving and exit the apartment. An officer stated that they observed § 87(2)(b) take something from § 87(2)(b) and place it in her pocket. § 87(2)(b) showed the officers that she only had batteries in her pockets. PO Zappulla asked everyone for their names; § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) provided their real names. § 87(2)(b)'s real name is § 87(2)(b) and the officers let them go. § 87(2)(b) provided the officers with a false name because he had an open arrest warrant. PO Zappulla told § 87(2)(b) that he needed to provide ID because the officers believed he provided a fake name. § 87(2)(b) did not have ID, so the officers handcuffed him. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were in the hallway when this transpired.

PO Zappulla grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s left shoulder to turn him so that he faced the officers and § 87(2)(b) backed away. PO Zappulla grabbed § 87(2)(b) a second time, placing two hands near his neck. § 87(2)(b) was not being choked. § 87(2)(b) bumped into PO Zappulla and § 87(2)(b) ran away, handcuffed, down the stairwell. Halfway down the stairs from the § 87(2)(b) landing, PO Zappulla pushed § 87(2)(b)'s back, causing him to fall forward. § 87(2)(b) jumped to the § 87(2)(b) landing and his face struck the door. He fell to the floor, landing on his back. PO Zappulla jumped down the stairs and got on top of § 87(2)(b). PO Zappulla punched him once on the nose, in the same spot where he struck the door, causing it to bleed. Three more officers responded, and an officer kicked § 87(2)(b) in the face, in the same spot where his face hit the door. § 87(2)(b) stated that he wanted medical attention. Several civilians came down the steps. An officer pulled out an asp and stated "don't fucking move" and "back the fuck up." § 87(2)(b) could not identify who these comments were directed at. PO Zappulla punched § 87(2)(b) several more times, again striking his face.

The officers brought § 87(2)(b) downstairs in the elevator and placed him in an RMP. PO Zappulla told § 87(2)(b) that his wanted poster was in the stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were also arrested, but § 87(2)(b) was released with a summons. § 87(2)(b) repeated that he needed medical attention at the stationhouse, and PO Tirado told him to wait. No other officers replied to § 87(2)(b)'s earlier requests for medical attention. Two EMTs treated § 87(2)(b) for having being maced. § 87(2)(b) cleaned his own face with his shirt. § 87(2)(b) acknowledged that his arrest photo showed no injuries; but did not offer an explanation as to the discrepancy. At central booking, § 87(2)(b) received medical attention; someone looked at his face and told him he would be alright. § 87(2)(b) made no indication that he had sought or received any further medical attention since being processed as an arrest.

Complainant/Witness: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) was inside of her § 87(2)(b) floor apartment § 87(2)(b) throughout the incident, looking out her open window that faces the courtyard between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (enc. 8). She took several photos and later e-mailed them to the CCRB (enc. 4). § 87(2)(b) observed § 87(2)(b) yelling at the officers, before they approached him, threw him to the floor, and handcuffed him. § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed by Sgt. Dym after he slapped a male civilian. Sgt. Dym punched § 87(2)(b) in his back and head three times. § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed against a bench outside § 87(2)(b)'s building.

Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) was interviewed at § 87(2)(b) Apt. 10B on July 7, 2010 (enc. 10). She reported that on March 20, 2010, at approximately 5:30 PM, she was inside of apartment § 87(2)(b) of § 87(2)(b) with her friend, § 87(2)(b) exited the apartment and observed that § 87(2)(b) was in handcuffs, standing next to § 87(2)(b). PO Zappulla pushed § 87(2)(b) towards the wall and stated that they needed his ID. § 87(2)(b) stepped in between the officers and § 87(2)(b) allowing § 87(2)(b) to run down the stairwell. § 87(2)(b) observed both officers catch up to § 87(2)(b) on the § 87(2)(b) landing and push him towards the steps leading to the § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) went down the steps and observed § 87(2)(b) chest down on the § 87(2)(b) landing, bleeding from his face. § 87(2)(b) believed that the officers kicked him, but did not describe who did so or where § 87(2)(b) was kicked. PO Tirado told § 87(2)(b) “Back the fuck up before I mace you,” and “Get the fuck upstairs before we fuck you up.” PO Tirado held a nightstick and pushed it against § 87(2)(b) stomach to prevent her from continuing down the stairs. Outside the building, § 87(2)(b) was standing by a gate close to § 87(2)(b) when a group of officers ran up to him and § 87(2)(b) Sgt. Dym swung his fist and struck § 87(2)(b) in the mouth, causing it to bleed. § 87(2)(b) yelled at the officers and “tussled” with them before an officer maced him.

Attempts to Contact Civilians

- § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (identified by § 87(2)(b) as a witness to the allegations that occurred outside of the building) each left one voicemail with the CCRB and provided their contact numbers. § 87(2)(b)'s phone was then disconnected, and no other contact information could be obtained. § 87(2)(b) was left two subsequent voicemails (enc. 36-37).
- § 87(2)(b) was sent multiple letters and multiple phone messages were left for her. § 87(2)(b) contacted the CCRB on September 29, 2010, and was told that if she wanted to make a statement, she needed to call back by October 1, 2010. § 87(2)(b) stated he wanted to make a statement and was subsequently sent two contact letters and left two phone messages. Neither civilian contacted the CCRB again to schedule an interview (enc. 36-37).
- § 87(2)(b) missed one scheduled appointment and was sent two subsequent contact letters, which were not returned to the CCRB; she has not contacted the CCRB since (enc. 36-37).
- None of the civilians had contact information for § 87(2)(b) as such, she could not be contacted or scheduled for an interview (enc. 9-10).

NYPD Statement(s):

Subject Officer: PO DANIEL TIRADO

- § 87(2)(b)
- PSA4 Sector D, March 20, 2010, from 3:00 PM to 11:35 PM; in uniform, marked RMP.

CCRB Statement

PO Tirado was interviewed at the CCRB on July 30, 2010 (enc. 13). His memo book entries corroborated his statement. At about 5:15 PM on March 20, 2010, PO Tirado and PO Zappulla conducted a vertical at § 87(2)(b). On the tenth floor they observed § 87(2)(b) in the hallway with § 87(2)(b). PO Tirado recognized § 87(2)(b) from his wanted photo. Both men were walking from apartment § 87(2)(b) after they spoke to a female inside and closed the door. The officers asked the males to step away from the door and asked § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) if they lived in the building. § 87(2)(b) stated that § 87(2)(b) lived in apartment § 87(2)(b). The officers asked if they had any ID, but they did not, and no one in the apartment had ID for them. The officers asked for their names. § 87(2)(b) said his name was § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) stated his own last name was § 87(2)(b). None of the women in the hallway were questioned.

The officers handcuffed § 87(2)(b). While trying to bring § 87(2)(b) to the elevator, § 87(2)(b) stepped in between the officers and § 87(2)(b) allowing § 87(2)(b) to escape and run down the stairwell. PO Zappulla chased § 87(2)(b) down the stairs, followed by PO Tirado. PO Tirado observed PO Zappulla jump about five steps onto the § 87(2)(b) landing and hold § 87(2)(b) to the ground. He did not observe § 87(2)(b) fall. § 87(2)(b) was bleeding from his mouth. No officer punched or kicked § 87(2)(b). The other civilians came down the stairs and yelled at the officers. PO Tirado took out his mace canister and told the civilians to back up or he would mace them. PO Tirado called for backup and within a few minutes Sgt. Fagnoli and PO Peralta arrived. No officer cursed or used any physical force against the other civilians. § 87(2)(b) complained of being in pain. The officers asked if he wanted medical attention or wanted to go to the hospital, but he refused. The officers brought § 87(2)(b) outside and placed him in an RMP. § 87(2)(b) was arrested outside after he “tried to push” an officer. PO Tirado did not observe anyone punch or mace § 87(2)(b). At the stationhouse, EMS responded to wash out § 87(2)(b)'s eyes. § 87(2)(b) washed his face in the bathroom. PO Tirado stated that he submitted a medical treatment of prisoner form for § 87(2)(b). PO Tirado did not indicate what the form said, and the form could not be obtained by the CCRB.

Subject Officer: PO FRANK ZAPPULLA

- § 87(2)(b)
- PSA4 Sector D, March 20, 2010, from 3:00 PM to 11:35 PM; in uniform, marked RMP.

CCRB Statement

PO Zappulla was interviewed at the CCRB on September 16, 2010 (enc. 14). His memo book entries corroborated his statement, § 87(2)(g). The officers first observed the male civilians make a hand to hand transaction with § 87(2)(b) through the open door of apartment § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) provided the name “Andrew § 87(2)(b)” before the officers asked for his name. The males were asked questions about the hand to hand transaction; they stated they had exchanged batteries, and were not questioned further. After handcuffing § 87(2)(b) the officers attempted to place him on the elevator; before they could do so, § 87(2)(b) stepped in between the officers and § 87(2)(b) allowing § 87(2)(b) to escape and run down the stairs. PO Zappulla chased § 87(2)(b) on the stairs between the § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) started to slip and fell down the steps. PO Zappulla had not touched § 87(2)(b) before he started to fall. The side of § 87(2)(b)'s head and his shoulder struck the corner of the stairwell. § 87(2)(b) then fell chest first to the ground. PO Zappulla jumped down the stairs and got on top of § 87(2)(b) to restrain him. PO Zappulla and PO Tirado never punched, struck or kicked § 87(2)(b). PO Zappulla turned § 87(2)(b) onto his back and noticed that § 87(2)(b) was bleeding from his lip. § 87(2)(b) stated he wanted to go to the hospital and PO Zappulla told him he would receive treatment at the stationhouse. No one told § 87(2)(b) that he could not receive treatment. PO Zappulla went directly to § 87(2)(b) Hospital about fifteen minutes after exiting the building. PO Zappulla did not observe any civilian or officer use force outside of the building. PO Zappulla did not hear any officers curse.

Witness Officer: SGT. DAVID FARGNOLI

- § 87(2)(b)
- Patrol Supervisor, March 20, 2010, from 2:50 PM to 11:47 PM; in uniform, marked RMP, PO Peralta was vehicle operator.

Witness Officer: PO RAFAEL PERALTA

- § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Statements

Sgt. Fagnoli was interviewed at the CCRB on September 20, 2010 (enc. 15). PO Peralta was interviewed at the CCRB on October 1, 2010 (enc. 16). Their memo book entries and statements were consistent, § 87(2)(g). When Sgt. Fagnoli and PO Peralta reached the incident location, § 87(2)(b) was in handcuffs, standing in the stairwell. Neither officer observed any injuries on § 87(2)(b). No officer cursed inside of the building or physically interacted with the civilians. The officers took § 87(2)(b) towards the elevator. § 87(2)(b) stood in the officers' path and refused to move. PO Peralta told him, "Get the hell out of the way before we arrest you." The officers brought § 87(2)(b) downstairs and placed him in an RMP. § 87(2)(b) came outside and was yelling and cursing at the officers, causing a crowd to form. Backing units had responded from the 5th, 7th and 9th Precincts. § 87(2)(b) walked up to § 87(2)(b) in front of § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) punched him in the face. Several officers grabbed onto § 87(2)(b) to handcuff him. § 87(2)(b) raised his arms in a fighting stance towards Sgt. Dym, and then grabbed onto the fence to prevent being handcuffed. Neither officer observed anyone punch § 87(2)(b) or spray him with mace. § 87(2)(b) was brought to the ground and arrested because he ignored instructions to leave the location. Neither officer observed anyone punch § 87(2)(b). Neither officer ever heard any civilian complain of being in pain or request medical attention during the incident.

Subject Officer: SGT. ERIC DYM

- § 87(2)(b)
- Patrol Supervisor, March 20, 2010, from 2:50 PM to 11:47 PM; in uniform, marked RMP, with PO Marco Galivanes.

CCRB Statement

Sgt. Dym was interviewed at the CCRB on September 20, 2010 (enc. 17). His memo book entries corroborated his statement. When Sgt. Dym and PO Galivanes ran up to the § 87(2)(b) of § 87(2)(b), they only observed several females screaming in the stairwell, including § 87(2)(b). The officers did not physically interact with the civilians. After exiting the building, Sgt. Dym observed § 87(2)(b) cursing and threatening the officers. § 87(2)(b) got in a fighting stance, and as a uniformed officer grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s arm, he resisted by swinging his arms in the air. Sgt. Dym and other officers handcuffed § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Dym did not punch or mace § 87(2)(b) and did not observe any other officer do so. § 87(2)(b) jumped on Sgt. Dym's back while he was attempting to handcuff § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Dym pulled back his arm in the air and "shrugged" her off of him. He had no physical interaction with her before she grabbed his arm and did not believe his arm struck her face. At the PSA4 stationhouse, Sgt. Dym asked all the prisoners if anyone was injured or needed medical attention. Everyone said they were fine and refused medical attention. No one had any visible injuries. § 87(2)(b) responded to the stationhouse and stated that she was punched in the stomach. She refused medical attention when it was offered.

NYPD Document(s)

Command Log

- The command log indicated that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were listed as having good/normal physical condition and not having requested medical attention. At 6:05 PM, Sgt. Fagnoli notified IAB about an injured prisoner (enc. 27).

Arrest Reports/Complaint Reports

Conclusion

Identification of Subject Officer(s)

- PO Zappulla confirmed stopping § 87(2)(b) and questioning § 87(2)(b) because the same officer was identified as having questioned § 87(2)(b) pushed § 87(2)(b) down the stairs are punched § 87(2)(b) all these allegations are pled against PO Zappulla. § 87(2)(b) alleged an officer kicked him but could not identify the officer and no one corroborated the allegation, so it is pled against “an officer.” PO Tirado confirmed threatening to use mace against the civilians inside of the building; therefore the discourtesy allegation is also pled against him. § 87(2)(b) identified PO Tirado as the only officer who responded to his requests for medical attention; since PO Tirado heard § 87(2)(b) say he was in pain and was § 87(2)(b)'s arresting officer, the refusal to provide medical attention allegation is pled against him. Sgt. Dym was identified based on physical description and his clothing as the officer that punched § 87(2)(b). No one could describe or identify the officers that brought § 87(2)(b) to the ground, so that allegation is pled against “officers.”

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegations Not Pled

- § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he was not being choked when PO Zappulla placed his hands against § 87(2)(b)'s neck. Therefore, a chokehold allegation will not be pled.
- The allegation that an officer hit § 87(2)(b) in the stomach is not being pled, because she withdrew that allegation in case #201004108 (enc. 7). Since the allegation was already disposed of and she also withdrew the complaint when making a statement for this case, the allegation is not being double pled.
- The allegation that Sgt. Dym punched § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) is not being pled because it was handled in case #201004108. § 87(2)(b) (who was identified as “§ 87(2)(b)” in that case) withdrew her complaint. Since § 87(2)(b) was uncooperative with this case, this allegation will also not be double pled.

Allegation A- Abuse of Authority: PO Frank Zappulla stopped § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) had a warrant out for his arrest, that PO Zappulla recognized § 87(2)(b) from his wanted poster in the PSA4 stationhouse, and that § 87(2)(b) provided the officers with a false name when PO Zappulla questioned him about his identity. The NYPD Street Encounters Guide indicates that when an officer has reasonable suspicion that a person had committed a felony or penal law misdemeanor, the officer may stop and detain the subject to determine if there is probable cause to make an arrest (enc. 1a). § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

Allegation B- Abuse of Authority: PO Frank Zappulla questioned § 87(2)(b) and

§ 87(2)(b)

As explained in the attempts to contact civilians section of this report, both § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were uncooperative with the investigation and did not provide statements in regards to the complaint. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation C- Force: PO Frank Zappulla used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D- Force: An officer used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation E- Abuse of Authority: PO Daniel Tirado did not obtain medical treatment for § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that while running down the stairwell, PO Zappulla pushed him. This caused him to have to jump down the stairs to maintain his balance, and in doing so, his face struck a wall and he fell to the ground. § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Zappulla punched him in the face multiple times, and an unknown officer kicked him in the face, in the same spot where he had struck the wall and been punched. § 87(2)(b) asked for medical attention and PO Tirado allegedly told him to wait and never obtained treatment for § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) was rear-handcuffed and running down the stairs before he fell and his face struck the wall on the § 87(2)(b) landing. § 87(2)(g) PO Zappulla denied pushing § 87(2)(b) down the stairs and stated that § 87(2)(b) lost his balance on his own before he fell, § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

PO Zappulla observed that § 87(2)(b) was bleeding from his lip after he apprehended § 87(2)(b) in the stairwell and flipped him onto his back. He told § 87(2)(b) that he could receive treatment at the stationhouse. PO Tirado stated that § 87(2)(b) complained of being in pain in the stairwell, but refused medical treatment. Sgt. Dym stated that at the stationhouse every prisoner stated they were fine and denied needing medical attention. The command log stated that § 87(2)(b)'s physical condition was good and said that medical attention was not requested. Additionally, § 87(2)(b) made no indication of having sought medical treatment after being processed as an arrest. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

Allegation F- Discourtesy: PO Daniel Tirado spoke obscenely to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation G- Abuse of Authority: PO Daniel Tirado threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that she wanted to withdraw her complaint (25:45 into audio of IA 100), because she did not have a problem with PO Tirado's actions towards her. No one from the NYPD or CCRB coerced her into withdrawing the complaint and she did so of her own free will. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation H- Force: An officer used pepper spray against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation I- Force: Sgt. Eric Dym used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation J- Force: Officers used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

As explained in the attempts to contact civilians section, both § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were uncooperative with the investigation and did not provide statements in regards to this complaint. § 87(2)(g).
