

without properly registering said person with the department. Wrongfully allowing an unauthorized person to be transported in a department vehicle without permission. Failed to notify any dispatcher of said individual's presence in said vehicle. Wrongfully engaging in conduct prejudicial to the good order, efficiency, and discipline of the department in that Detective Buddin failed to safeguard a prisoner known to the department, which resulted in the loss of said prisoner, failed and neglected to conduct an investigation to determine whether a person known to the NYPD had outstanding warrants and a valid license. Also failed and neglected to make, as well as maintain accurate, concise entries in his activity log. As a result, he forfeited ten (10) vacation days and received a "B" command discipline.

2. On or about November 2016, Detective Edward Buddin had a substantiated departmental investigation for engaging in a personal relationship with an individual after arresting said individual's husband on allegations that said individual's husband engaged in acts of domestic violence, as well as using his position as a member of NYPD to attempt to secure property of the above mentioned individual claimed she owned and was withheld from her and said action was not related to NYPD business. He received internal discipline and forfeited thirty (30) days of vacation. Discipline.
3. On or about April of 2017, Detective Edward Buddin had a substantiated departmental investigation for fraternizing. He received internal discipline.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Ext.] during office hours.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

cc: Clerk of the Court