Case Summary

On March 14, 2015, Sgt. Philip Berfond of Transit Bureau District 34 filed this complaint with IAB on behalf of § 87(2)(b) where it received original log number 15-6660. On March 24, 2015, this complaint was referred to the CCRB. On March 24, 2015, a 'please call' letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b)'s home address. This letter was not returned by the United States Postal Service. On the same day, a search of the Coles directory did not produce additional addresses for § 87(2)(b). A call to the IAB-CCRB liaison did not produce additional contact information. A BADS search did not produce additional phone numbers or addresses for § 87(2)(b) and CTS records indicated that he was not involved in any prior complaints.

On March 24, 2015, a search of White Pages produced three additional addresses and three additional phone numbers for § 87(2)(b). One of these numbers was called and answered by an unidentified female who stated that she did not know anyone named § 87(2)(b). The second number was called five times between March 24, 2015, and March 31, 2015. A generic voicemail was received and messages were left each time. The third number was called five times between March 24, 2015, and March 31, 2015. This number did not have a voicemail and messages could not be left.

Initial 'please call' letters were mailed to the three additional addresses from White Pages on March 24, 2015. These letters were not returned by the United States Postal Service. On March 25, 2015, a search of LexisNexis did not provide any additional information for § 87(2)(b). On March 31, 2015, final 'please call' letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b)'s four addresses. These letters were not returned by the United States Postal Service. On April 6, 2015, a search of the New York City Department of Correction website did not indicate that § 87(2)(b) was incarcerated. § 87(2)(b)
