DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

1. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about April 8, 2006, having been present at an incident where shots were fired and witnessing a police chase, he failed and neglected to remain at the scene of the incident and to request the response of the patrol supervisor as required. Officer Abraham pleaded guilty to this allegation.
2. The New York City Police Department has also deemed substantiated the following allegations: (a) that on or about October 8, 2007, he wrongfully punched an individual known to the department in her face and struck her with a belt causing a minor injury; (b) that on or about January 19, 2008, he wrongfully slapped his girlfriend in her face; and (c) that on or about January 20, 2008, having purchased two Smith & Wesson firearms, wrongfully failed to report the acquisition of said firearms to the department as required. Officer Abraham was determined to be guilty of these allegations.
3. The New York City Police Department has also deemed substantiated the following allegations: (a) in or about and between January 2007 and January 2008, while assigned to the School Safety Division in a high school in the Bronx, New York, he wrongfully maintained a personal relationship with a student at said school; and (b) the same relationship involved a student who he reasonably believed to be engaged in, likely to engage in, or to have engaged in criminal activities in that the student had been arrested on one or more occasions. Officer Abraham pleaded guilty to these allegations.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
