DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that there was a monetary discrepancy for a property voucher that Officer Rivera completed. On November 18, 2019, the NYPD was notified by a bank that an invoice was 25 cents short. The vouchered amount was $1,255.57, and the bank received $1,255.32. When interviewed, Officer Rivera said that he counted the money twice, first when preparing the voucher, and the second time when re-counting the money in front of a supervisor to have the voucher approved, and that both times it added up to $1,255.57.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
