With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

A review of the officer's Christopher Schiro Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On July 20, 2018 Officer Schiro had a substantiated departmental investigation for failure to notify his supervisor for a use of force encounter in that the defendant under arrest did not comply with officers who instructed the defendant to move to the middle of the RMP during the transporting process of the arrest. The use of force was investigated but no disciplinary action was administered for the use of force. Officer Schiro did however receive a schedule "A" command discipline for failing to notify the supervisor in regards to the use of force.
2. On May 15, 2019 Officer Schiro had a substantiated departmental investigation for failure to safeguard department equipment, missing department and received a schedule "A" command discipline.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.
