Re: People v. [REDACTED] Ind. No. [REDACTED]

Dear Counsel,

As you know, I am the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case of the People v. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] This disclosure concerns Undercover Detective C0043 ("UC 43"), whom the People intend to call as a witness in this case.

In April 2014, the New York City Police Department's Department Advocate's Office served UC 43 with a disciplinary charge and specification, in sum and substance, as follows: that UC 43, on or about and between April 1, 2011 and May 31, 2011, did engage in conduct prejudicial to the good order, efficiency or discipline of the Department, to wit, said Detective wrongfully engaged in illegal sports gambling. More specifically, in April or May of 2011, UC 43 placed two bets on baseball games through another member of the NYPD. UC 43 won those bets and the other member of the NYPD paid UC 43 for them. UC 43 then received an account number, password, phone number and web site address from the other member of the NYPD. UC 43 used this information to place additional bets over the course of approximately three weeks, stopping thereafter.

In May 2014, UC 43 pleaded guilty to the specification and charge listed above, and the NYPD penalized UC 43 with the forfeiture of 25 vacation days.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude or limit reference to this information in any further proceedings in this prosecution.

Sincerely,

Jakub D. Brodowski
Assistant District Attorney
