Case Summary

On December 16, 2019, § 87(2)(b) an employee of § 87(2)(b) Hospital, filed this complaint as an NYS Child Abuse referral with the NYPD's Special Victims Unit (SVU) on behalf of § 87(2)(b) who was 16 years old at the time of this incident. SVU forwarded the complaint to IAB on December 16, 2019, and IAB forward the complaint to the CCRB on December 26, 2019.

On December 14, 2019, at approximately 9:00 a.m., officers from the 44th Precinct—including Police Officers Erica Fermin, Krystal Madrid, Yajaira Garcia, and Kimberly Torres—responded to a 911 call placed by § 87(2)(b) regarding an Emotionally Disturbed Person (EDP) at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. § 87(2)(b) the mother of § 87(2)(b) and the grandmother of the then 16-year-old § 87(2)(b) let the officers inside. In the living room, the officers observed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) arguing. The officers attempted to separate § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). A physical struggle between § 87(2)(b) and the officers ensued, during which PO Fermin used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b) (Allegation A – Force: Chokehold; § 87(2)(g)) and PO Madrid and PO Fermin used physical force against § 87(2)(b) (Allegation B – Force: Physical Force; § 87(2)(g)) Allegation C – Force: Physical Force; § 87(2)(g) PO Madrid threatened to Taser § 87(2)(b) (Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: Threat of Force; § 87(2)(g)) PO Madrid spoke discourteously toward § 87(2)(b) (Allegation E – Discourtesy: Word; § 87(2)(g)) PO Fermin searched a bedroom and a closet for § 87(2)(b) shoes (Allegation F – Abuse of Authority: Search of Premises; § 87(2)(g)) The officers forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital at EMS' direction (Allegation G – Abuse of Authority: Forcible Removal to Hospital; § 87(2)(g)) § 87(2)(b) was not arrested or issued any summonses. The investigation determined that PO Fermin provided a false official statement to the CCRB on December 14, 2020 (Allegation H – False Official Statement; § 87(2)(g))

The investigation obtained partial footage of the incident from the officers' body-worn-cameras (BWC). The footage is in IAs 141-149 (BRs 1-9), and the summaries are in IAs 160, 166-167, 170-172, 174, 180, and 182 (BRs 10-18).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Police Officer Erica Fermin used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b)
Allegation B – Police Officer Krystal Madrid used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
Allegation C – Police Officer Erica Fermin used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
Allegation D – Police Officer Krystal Madrid threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.
At the 01:35 minute mark of PO Garcia's BWC footage (timestamp visible at the bottom of the media player), the officers enter the apartment after a brief conversation with § 87(2)(b) at the front door (BR 1). They walk into a living room and observe § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) arguing. § 87(2)(b) yells statements at § 87(2)(b) such as, "You should have had a fucking abortion with me," and § 87(2)(b) walks away. PO Fermin approaches § 87(2)(b) and repeatedly says, "Hey." PO Fermin reaches out to touch § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) pushes PO Fermin's arm off her. § 87(2)(b) reaches down, picks up a pillow, and throws it in the direction of § 87(2)(b) PO Fermin tells § 87(2)(b) to calm down and reaches out toward her again, but § 87(2)(b) pushes her away. At 01:55, PO Fermin and PO Garcia attempt to grab onto § 87(2)(b) arms, and she tells them to get off her. She repeats, "Get the fuck off me," and extends her arms outward. PO Garcia grabs onto § 87(2)(b) left forearm and says, "Sit." At 02:02, PO Fermin places her hand around § 87(2)(b) neck near the middle of § 87(2)(b) shirt collar (see still photo saved to BR 19). PO Fermin's thumb is separated from her other fingers, which are outstretched, and § 87(2)(b) throat is in between PO Fermin's thumb and her index finger, consistent with a common choking hand gesture. PO Fermin and § 87(2)(b) fall onto a nearby couch with PO Fermin's hand still up against § 87(2)(b) neck.

On the couch, PO Fermin stands above § 87(2)(b) and continues to hold onto her neck with one hand. § 87(2)(b) meanwhile, grabs onto PO Fermin's shirt collar. It is unclear in the footage whether § 87(2)(b) hand directly makes contact with PO Fermin's neck (as opposed to only making contact with her shirt collar). PO Fermin repeatedly states, "She's on my neck," and she and PO Garcia attempt to pull § 87(2)(b) hand off. The footage becomes choppy and blurred, and the subsequent actions the officers and § 87(2)(b) take are not clearly depicted. During this obscured struggle, PO Madrid states, "I'm going to fucking Taser you," and, a short time later, "If you kick me, I'm going to Taser you." At 02:30, § 87(2)(b) screams, "Ow." It is unclear what causes § 87(2)(b) to scream in pain. The officers bring § 87(2)(b) from the couch onto the floor and rear handcuff her. At the 12:55 mark of PO Fermin's second BWC file, an officer asks PO Fermin how § 87(2)(b) sustained an injury to her eye, and PO Fermin replies, "We gonna view the body-cam and find out. I know I threw some elbows" (BR 3). At the 14:00 mark of PO Madrid's second BWC file, the officers chat with each other as § 87(2)(b) enters an ambulance. PO Fermin says, "I think I ..." and gestures swinging her left elbow outward (BR 5).

§ 87(2)(b) testified that she was having an argument with § 87(2)(b) when several officers entered the living room and told her to calm down (BR 20). Without explanation, and without saying anything to her, PO Fermin reached out and grabbed the center of her shirt collar near her neck with one hand. § 87(2)(b) told PO Fermin to let go of her three times, but she did not, so § 87(2)(b) reached her own hand out and grabbed the center of PO Fermin's shirt collar in a similar manner. § 87(2)(b) did not pull or yank PO Fermin's collar. The officers pushed § 87(2)(b) onto the couch, and both PO Fermin and § 87(2)(b) continued to hold onto each other's collars. § 87(2)(b) was able to breathe with PO Fermin's hand on her shirt collar. An officer said § 87(2)(b) kicked her, which § 87(2)(b) denied. PO Fermin ordered § 87(2)(b) to let go of her. § 87(2)(b) did not. With her free arm, PO Fermin elbowed § 87(2)(b) four times in the right eye in quick succession. All four elbow strikes hit § 87(2)(b) glasses, which compressed against her eye socket and face. The glasses did not break, but the strikes caused severe swelling in § 87(2)(b) right eye (see photos in BRs 21-23). An officer told § 87(2)(b) that if she did not let go of PO Fermin, she would be Tased, so § 87(2)(b) let go.

PO Fermin testified that when she tried to calm § 87(2)(b) down, § 87(2)(b) shoved her (BR 24). PO Fermin did not think she had touched § 87(2)(b) prior to that point. PO Fermin did not remember what she did in response to being pushed. § 87(2)(b) then reached out with one hand and grabbed the middle of PO Fermin's shirt collar with her fist. § 87(2)(b) knuckles were positioned up against PO Fermin's throat. PO Fermin believed § 87(2)(b) was trying to push her knuckles into her throat. PO Fermin stated that § 87(2)(b) knuckles applied some pressure to her neck, but she did not recall if that caused her to have difficulty breathing. She described the situation as "intense," and noted that § 87(2)(b) was taller and heavier than her, though she was unable to estimate her height or weight. She and § 87(2)(b) fell onto the couch, though she did not remember how or why. Using both hands, PO Fermin tried to pull § 87(2)(b) arm and hand away from her collar. PO Fermin did not recall if she did anything else with her hands at that point. PO Fermin yelled, "She's on my neck, she's on my neck." PO Fermin did not place her hand on § 87(2)(b) shirt collar at any point during the incident. When asked if she elbowed § 87(2)(b) at any point, PO Fermin answered, "Not that I can recall, no." She did not recall ever making physical contact with § 87(2)(b) eye. When asked if she ever had her hand near § 87(2)(b) neck area, she responded, "Absolutely not." She denied using a chokehold against § 87(2)(b).

During her CCRB interview, after providing the above account of the incident, PO Fermin reviewed PO Garcia's BWC footage between the 01:54 and 02:04 marks (timestamps visible at the bottom of the screen). She said she could see a hand at § 87(2)(b) neck when the footage was stopped at 02:04, but she did not know whose hand it was. She did not remember if she saw any other officer grab § 87(2)(b) neck as depicted in the footage. The footage did not refresh her memory as to whether she ever touched § 87(2)(b) neck or collar areas. PO Fermin also reviewed her second BWC file between the 12:55 and 13:07 marks, and though she heard herself say, “I know I threw some elbows,” she did not independently recall doing so during the incident.

PO Fermin was also interviewed by Bronx Investigations about this incident (BR 50). Her statement was generally consistent with her statement to the CCRB with some differences. She said after § 87(2)(b) shoved her, PO Fermin “went to pull § 87(2)(b) arms down” and she and § 87(2)(b) “tumbled” onto the sofa. PO Fermin described, “She grabbed me by my collar and her knuckles were against my neck.” § 87(2)(b) maintained her hold on PO Fermin and the officers “had to wrestle with her” to handcuff her. PO Garcia tried to pull PO Fermin free from § 87(2)(b) grasp but could not. The TRI PO Fermin prepared regarding this incident documents that she used a hand strike and forcible takedown to overcome § 87(2)(b) resistance or aggression and in defense of self and other officers (BR 48). PO Fermin said in her Bronx Investigations interview that she hit § 87(2)(b) forearm with her hand to get § 87(2)(b) off of her and this is the hand strike that the TRI references. PO Fermin did not remember if she grabbed § 87(2)(b) by her neck or collar but said she did put her hand on § 87(2)(b) chest at some point. She did not remember if she ever struck § 87(2)(b) face and did not recall if she ever elbowed her but did not think she did. She did not know how § 87(2)(b) sustained her facial injury.

PO Madrid’s CCRB statement was generally consistent with the BWC footage (BR 27). She said the only physical force she recalled using was trying to pull § 87(2)(b) arm and hand away from PO Fermin’s neck and being unable to do so. § 87(2)(b) kicked her feet and the kicks landed on PO Madrid’s thigh twice. At an unknown point sometime after she saw § 87(2)(b) hand around PO Fermin’s neck, PO Madrid unholstered her Taser. She did this because § 87(2)(b) was kicking and had her hand on PO Fermin’s neck. She intended to use the Taser. Shortly after unholstering it, § 87(2)(b) kicked it out of PO Madrid’s hand. PO Madrid did not recall verbally threatening to Taser § 87(2)(b) but acknowledged hearing her voice doing so in the BWC footage. After over a minute, § 87(2)(b) let go of PO Fermin’s neck. PO Madrid immediately grabbed the hand that had been grabbing PO Fermin. § 87(2)(b) fell to the floor stomach-first and was handcuffed by PO Madrid and other officers. PO Madrid did not recall if officers brought § 87(2)(b) from the couch to the floor or if that happened some other way.

PO Madrid was also interviewed by Bronx Investigations about this incident (BR 51). Her statement was generally consistent with her CCRB statement. The TRI PO Madrid prepared regarding this incident documents that she used a hand strike to overcome § 87(2)(b) resistance or aggression and in defense of self and other officers (BR 49). PO Madrid said in her Bronx Investigations interview that the hand strike noted on the TRI reflects her action of attempting to grab § 87(2)(b) arms to handcuff her.

PO Madrid, PO Garcia, and PO Torres all denied observing anyone’s hand on or near § 87(2)(b) neck, though PO Madrid also acknowledged seeing a hand there at the 02:04 mark of PO Garcia’s BWC footage (BRs 25-26). PO Madrid did not know whose hand that was and denied it was hers. The officers further denied observing PO Fermin or anyone else elbow § 87(2)(b) in the face.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did not observe the physical altercation, and § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) brother who was also on scene—became uncooperative with the investigation and did not provide a statement (see contact attempts) (BRs 28-29).

NYPD Patrol Guide. Procedure 221-01 states that officers may use physical force if “it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody. In all circumstances, any application or use of force must be reasonable under the circumstances” (BR 30). In evaluating whether force is reasonable, the Patrol Guide instructs officers to consider:

a. The nature and severity of the crime/circumstances; b. Actions taken by the subject; c. Duration of the action; d. Immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of the service, and/or bystanders; e. Whether the subject is actively resisting custody; f. Whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight; g. Number of subjects in comparison to the number of MOS; h. Size, age, and condition of the subject in comparison to the MOS; i. Subject’s violent history, if known; j. Presence of hostile crowd or agitators; k. Subject apparently under the influence of a stimulant/narcotic which; would affect pain tolerance or increase the likelihood of violence.”

Officers are categorically prohibited from using chokeholds, which the Patrol Guide defines as “any pressure to the throat or windpipe, which may prevent or hinder breathing or reduce intake of air.”

[REDACTED] The BWC footage shows an officer’s hand pressed against the front of § 87(2)(b) neck, both while officers are taking her to the couch and while she is on the couch (see photos saved to BRs 19, 31-32). § 87(2)(b) neck is positioned between the officer’s thumb and her other fingers. § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PO Madrid was farther away from § 87(2)(b) behind PO Fermin on the couch, and the only other officer immediately next to the physical struggle, PO Garcia, was wearing blue gloves (the hand against § 87(2)(b) neck was ungloved).

§ 87(2)(g) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] the Patrol Guide defines a chokehold as any application of pressure to the throat or windpipe. The still photo saved to IA 272 shows that PO Fermin’s hand was directly pressed against § 87(2)(b) throat § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED] § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Between the BWC footage and civilian and officer statements, the investigation determined that PO Fermin and PO Madrid collectively pulled § 87(2)(b) hand and arms, hit her forearm in an attempt to get her to release her hold of PO Fermin, [REDACTED] pushed her onto the couch, brought her to the floor, and pulled her arms back to rear handcuff her. § 87(2)(b)

PO Fermin admitted to elbowing § 87(2)(b) on the BWC footage, it is unclear when exactly she did that, as the BWC footage does not clearly depict the physical struggle and she did not recall doing it. § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) was unarmed and greatly outnumbered by the officers. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) The threats came shortly after PO Fermin repeatedly said, “She’s on my neck,” § 87(2)(g), though § 87(2)(b) denied kicking PO Madrid, she was actively resisting police custody when PO Madrid issued the threats by wiggling her body and repeatedly telling the officers to get off her. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation E – Police Officer Krystal Madrid spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

At the 02:04 mark of PO Garcia’s BWC footage (timestamp visible at the bottom of the screen), the officers struggle with § 87(2)(b) on the couch (BR 1). PO Fermin says, “Get off me, she’s on my neck,” and PO Madrid states, “I’m going to fucking Taser you.” At 02:35, an officer tells § 87(2)(b) “Give me your fucking arm.” The officers manage to get § 87(2)(b) on the floor and handcuff her. At 03:05, PO Madrid says, “She had her hand around her fucking neck.” § 87(2)(b) hears the comment and replies that she had her hand on the officer’s collar and not her neck. PO Madrid responds, “No, you had it around her fucking neck.”

PO Madrid did not recall stating, “I’m going to fucking Taser you,” or, “You had it around her fucking neck,” but she acknowledged hearing herself make those statements in the BWC footage (BR 27). She did not recall why she made those comments. She did not believe she was the officer captured on BWC footage stating, “Give me your fucking arm,” and she did not know who did say that.

The investigation determined that PO Madrid was the officer who said, “Give me your fucking arm,” based on her voice as captured in her CCRB interview and at other points of the BWC footage.

According to DCT Case No. 2015-15012, though officers are to behave professionally and respectfully towards members of the public and to avoid the use of discourteous language, their use of profanities during stressful encounters does not necessarily constitute misconduct (BR 33).

§ 87(2)(g) A physical struggle ensued during which PO Fermin repeatedly stated that § 87(2)(b) was on her neck. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation F – Police Officer Erica Fermin searched § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx.

At the 07:20 mark of PO Fermin’s second BWC file (timestamp visible at the bottom of the media player), PO Fermin walks around the apartment, enters a bedroom, and opens the door to a closed closet (BR 3). She retrieves shoes from the closet and gives them to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) replies that those are not her shoes. When PO Fermin searches for the shoes, § 87(2)(b) speaks with other officers and EMTs in a different room. § 87(2)(b) however, is fully cooperative with the officers and free to get § 87(2)(b) shoes when PO Fermin searches for them. Indeed, § 87(2)(b) ultimately retrieves the correct shoes for § 87(2)(b) and helps her put them on. The BWC videos do not capture PO Fermin or any other officers asking any of the civilians for permission to search the apartment for shoes.

In their original statements, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did not mention this allegation, but in subsequent phone calls, they confirmed that they did not give officers permission to search the apartment for § 87(2)(b) shoes (BRs 34-35).

PO Fermin acknowledged looking for § 87(2)(b) shoes in a bedroom and a closet. She said there was no reason she specifically searched for the shoes rather than obtaining assistance from the civilians. No civilians told her that she could look for the shoes in either the bedroom or the closed closet (BR 24).

Under the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Article I, §12 of the New York Constitution, officers may not search areas over which civilians maintain a reasonable expectation of privacy unless the civilians provide consent, or the officers prove exigent or emergency circumstances necessitated their search (BR 36-37).

It is undisputed that PO Fermin did not obtain the civilians’ consent to search the apartment for shoes.

§ 87(2)(g)

It is further undisputed that no emergencies or exigent circumstances required her to search for the shoes. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation G – Officers forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

It is undisputed that EMTs removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital because they believed she was an EDP and needed to receive treatment for her injured eye.

At the 11:20 mark of PO Garcia’s BWC (timestamp visible at the bottom of the media player), an EMT states she is going to take § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) Hospital (BR 1). § 87(2)(b) says she would prefer if § 87(2)(b) went to a different hospital, and the EMT responds, “We are going to take her to § 87(2)(b). She will be transferred to the psych, and that’s just how it’s going to go.”

§ 87(2)(b) who was § 87(2)(b) legal guardian at the time, testified that an EMT told her § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) would be taken to § 87(2)(b) Hospital as an EDP (BR 28).

The ICAD for 911 job #§ 87(2)(b) confirms that the incident was classified as a 10-54 EDP, meaning EMS was automatically dispatched to the scene (BR 38).

PO Torres, PO Garcia, and PO Fermin believed that the EMTs made the final decision to remove § 87(2)(b) to the hospital (BR 24-26). PO Madrid did not recall who made that decision (BR 27).

NYPD Patrol Guide, Procedure 216-01 requires officers to cooperate with “ambulance/hospital personnel in every reasonable manner” (BR 39). NYPD Patrol Guide, Procedure 221-13 authorizes officers to take into custody civilians whom they believe are “emotionally disturbed” and likely to cause serious injury to themselves or others (BR 40).

The EMTs believed that § 87(2)(b) needed to be psychologically evaluated, as evidenced by the BWC and § 87(2)(b) testimony. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation H – Police Officer Erica Fermin provided a false official statement to the CCRB.

As noted in the previous section, on December 14, 2020, PO Fermin denied ever placing her hand near § 87(2)(b) neck area, denied using a chokehold against § 87(2)(b) and denied that the hand captured at § 87(2)(b) neck in PO Garcia’s BWC footage belonged to her. § 87(2)(g)

Officers are prohibited from making false official statements, and will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. Intentionally making a false official statement regarding a material matter will result in dismissal from the Department, absent exceptional circumstances. NYPD Patrol Guide, Procedure 203-08 (Board Review 54).

Whether PO Fermin made contact with § 87(2)(b) neck and placed her in a chokehold are material facts directly related to the FADO under investigation. When presented with the video evidence during her CCRB interview, PO Fermin acknowledged seeing a hand at § 87(2)(b) neck, but denied that it belonged to her. § 87(2)(g)

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is the first CCRB complaint to which § 87(2)(b) has been a party (BR 41).
- This is the first CCRB complaint to which § 87(2)(b) has been a party (BR 42).
- PO Fermin has been a member of service for four years and has been a subject in one other CCRB complaint and two allegations, none of which was substantiated (BR 43). § 87(2)(g)
- PO Madrid has been a member of service for nine years and has been a subject in three other CCRB complaint and three allegations, none of which was substantiated (BR 44). § 87(2)(g)

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- This case was not eligible for mediation.

- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]
[REDACTED]
- As of January 19, 2021, the New York City Office of the Comptroller has no record of a Notice of Claim being filed regarding this incident (BR 47).
