DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated, upon her pleas of guilty, Charges & Specs containing allegations that, on or about August 20, 2015, Stephanie Hanna failed to safeguard an emotionally disturbed person at Mt. Sinai Hospital until that person had been seen by a psychiatrist; failed to request the response of a patrol supervisor after becoming aware that said emotionally disturbed person had gone missing; failed to conduct a thorough search and failed to notify any supervisors upon losing custody of said person; was discourteous to a civilian by refusing to drive her home; and that Stephanie Hanna was discourteous to a different civilian by rolling up the window when said civilian was trying to speak to her.
2. As of November 6, 2020, the NYPD has pending Charges & Specs containing allegations that, on October 8, 2017, Stephanie Hanna failed to note that a person was injured in police custody or that the person received medical care at the scene; that she gave an improper disposition at the completion of the job; that she failed to prepare a complaint report; failed to take proper investigatory steps after learning that a civilian had been injured while in police custody and that said civilian sustained property damage; that she failed to prepare an aided report for a person who was injured while in police custody; and that she failed to report the misconduct of another member of the NYPD to a supervisor.
