Case Summary

On February 22, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB online. In his initial complaint, § 87(2)(b) provided his phone number, email address and mailing address. The investigator received this complaint on February 24, 2020.

The investigator placed a first call to § 87(2)(b) on February 25, 2020 and left a voicemail message. The undersigned investigator sent an ADR eligible please call letter to § 87(2)(b)'s email and mailing address on that same day. The investigator placed four more calls to § 87(2)(b) between February 27, 2020 and March 9, 2020 and left voicemail messages.

§ 87(2)(b) emailed the investigator on March 1, 2020 stating that he is not interested in mediation and that he would not be able to take off any days from work to attend a mediation session at the CCRB. The investigator sent § 87(2)(b) an email reply that day explaining that we would be able to move forward with the investigation, which would require him to come in to the CCRB for a verified statement. The investigator sent § 87(2)(b) a final please call letter to his email address and mailing address on March 3, 2020. Neither of the letters sent to § 87(2)(b)'s mailing address were returned by USPS.

No footage of this incident was recovered.

On March 9, 2020, a search of the Department of Corrections for New York City and State revealed that § 87(2)(b) was not incarcerated. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)
