Case Summary

On April 3, 2017, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB to file the following complaint on her own behalf. § 87(2)(g)

On March 31, 2017, at approximately 7:38 a.m., § 87(2)(b) called 911 to her home, located at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) in Queens, because she had an altercation with her former roommate, § 87(2)(b) who was being evicted on this date. § 87(2)(b) left the location prior to § 87(2)(b) calling 911. PO Angel Colon and PO Jacob Piser, both assigned to the 105th Precinct, responded to this call. PO Colon allegedly took § 87(2)(b)'s identification to fill out the criminal complaint report and did not return it to § 87(2)(b) (Allegation A). The officers returned to § 87(2)(b)'s house two more times this day. PO Colon allegedly told § 87(2)(b) that if she called 911 again, she would be arrested (Allegation B). § 87(2)(b) continually went back to the 105th Precinct stationhouse in the following days to obtain her identification and to file a new criminal complaint report that she felt more accurately covered her concerns. A new criminal complaint report was filed (Board Review 09), but she never received her identification.

There is no video evidence in relation to this complaint.

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- § 87(2)(b) rejected mediation.
- As of April 13, 2017, § 87(2)(b) has not filed a Notice of Claim with the City of New York (Board Review 08).
- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- § 87(2)(b) has filed four complaints with the CCRB, § 87(2)(b)
- PO Angel Colon has been a Member of Service for 16 years and has been a subject in three cases totaling nine allegations. Allegations of a discourtesy, frisk, search of person, and stop were all unsubstantiated. In case 200912658, allegations of an improper entry and search and of a retaliatory summons were substantiated against PO Colon and he received charges.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A—Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Angel Colon seized § 87(2)(b)'s property.

Allegation B—Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Angel Colon threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that PO Colon arrived at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) on March 31, 2017 to respond to a dispute. It is undisputed that he filled out a criminal complaint report (Board Review 04) in regards to the incident. It is undisputed that PO Colon arrived at the location three times between 7:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. 911 records show that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called 911 once and § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called 911 twice (Board Review 03). § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 01) alleged that PO Colon took her identification to fill out a criminal complaint report and then he left without returning it. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) only noticed after all of her interactions with the officers were complete and she subsequently attempted to retrieve her identification from the 105th Precinct stationhouse without success. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that PO Colon told § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) alleged that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) threw her keys at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) car, an allegation which § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) denied to PO Colon and to the CCRB. Later and unconnected to this conversation, PO Colon threatened to arrest her if she called 911 again. There were no civilian witnesses to these interactions.

911 records show that at 7:30 a.m., § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called 911 and reported that her roommate assaulted her. 911 records also show that at 7:59 a.m., § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called 911 and alleged that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) assaulted her. At 9:00 a.m., § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) called 911 again and alleged that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) hit her in the head with a shoe at approximately 7:30 a.m. and that the police have still not responded (Board Review 03).

PO Colon (Board Review 05) denied not returning § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) identification. He held her identification at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) door, wrote the information he needed on a scrap of paper (that he subsequently tore up and threw away), and he returned her identification to her. He did not learn at any time that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) claimed that he still had her identification. PO Colon denied threatening to arrest § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) he did not consider arresting her at any time, and she was not doing anything that was an arrestable offense. He did advise § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) to part ways as their landlord-tenant relationship was concluded and there was no longer any reason for them to be in contact.
