Results of Investigation

Civilian Statements:

Victim: § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b) -old black male with brown hair and brown eyes who is 5'6" tall and weighs 115 pounds. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on June 18, 2009 (encl. 6A-6B). On June 1, 2009, at about 3:40 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was standing on the corner of Vanderbilt Avenue and Willoughby Avenue in Brooklyn with his friends § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was wearing a blue and black plaid shirt and had a backpack with him. No one else was wearing a plaid or checkered shirt.

A marked police car containing two officers, identified in the course of the investigation as PO Basil Omisanya and Lieutenant Gionata Bargellini, parked near § 87(2)(b) and the officers exited the vehicle. Lt. Bargellini approached § 87(2)(b) and asked him to approach the car. § 87(2)(b) said "I beg your pardon" as he was facing away from the street and could not hear the officer. The officers repeated their request and § 87(2)(b) approached. § 87(2)(b) stood next to the car without putting his hands on the car.

PO Omisanya took § 87(2)(b) backpack off and dropped it in the dirt, where it lay without being touched again by officers. PO Omisanya put both of § 87(2)(b) hands behind his back and held him there without handcuffing him. PO Omisanya asked § 87(2)(b) if he had anything “pricky” in his pockets, then patted down the outside of his pants pockets. Lt. Bargellini told § 87(2)(b) that he fit the description of an individual who had thrown grass at a male. § 87(2)(b) disputed that he threw grass at someone.

§ 87(2)(b) friends asked the officers why they were stopping him and Lt. Bargellini told them, “Step back or I’ll check you too.” § 87(2)(b) friends crossed to the other side of the street. Lt. Bargellini got back in the RMP and drove off, leaving § 87(2)(b) in the custody of PO Omisanya, who was still holding his hands behind his back.

Lt. Bargellini returned after a minute with a male, identified in the course of the investigation as § 87(2)(b) in the rear seat. § 87(2)(b) saw Lt. Bargellini point at him, then § 87(2)(b) looked at § 87(2)(b) and told Lt. Bargellini “no” or shook his head. § 87(2)(b) had never seen § 87(2)(b) previously. The officers then released § 87(2)(b) and asked him for his name, his birth date and his phone number. § 87(2)(b) provided this information and the officers drove off. § 87(2)(b) was then joined by his friends and two women who had witnessed this incident, identified in the course of the investigation as § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) had not previously encountered these women. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) allowed § 87(2)(b) to call his mother on one of their phones and walked him home. This incident took five to ten minutes in total.

Once § 87(2)(b) arrived home, he went with his mother, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to the 88th precinct to complain about this incident. § 87(2)(b) was told by an officer that § 87(2)(b) could not describe that it was not possible to file a complaint at that time. § 87(2)(b) was not told why it was not possible to file a complaint at this time. Right as they were about to leave, Lt. Bargellini walked into the precinct, which is how § 87(2)(b) obtained Lt. Bargellini’s name. § 87(2)(b) got into an argument with Lt. Bargellini.

Complainant/Victim: § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b)-old black female with black hair and brown eyes who weighs 189 pounds and is 5’9” tall. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) provided a phone statement to the CCRB on June 26, 2009 (encl. 7D). § 87(2)(b) was interviewed at Jimmy’s Café in Midtown on July 13, 2009 (encl. 7E-7F). § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) went to the 88th precinct to file a complaint with her son, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). At the precinct, she told officers behind a desk that she wished to file a civilian complaint and the officers appeared to be willing to take this complaint, as they were readying forms. At this point, Lt. Bargellini walked into the precinct and § 87(2)(b) got into an argument with him. § 87(2)(b) threatened to sue Lt. Bargellini. Lt. Bargellini told her to go ahead and provided her with his shield number. Lt. Bargellini told § 87(2)(b) that she could not file a complaint at the precinct and she had to call an 800 number. He did not provide her with this number.

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b)-old black male who is 5'3" with dark brown hair and brown eyes. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on June 15, 2009 (encl. 8A-8B). § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b) stated that Lt. Bargellini took § 87(2)(b) backpack off, opened it and then later searched it when he was inside the RMP. § 87(2)(b) gave Lt. Bargellini's threat to him, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) as "You guys have to go home or you're going to get searched."

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b)-old black male who is 5'3", weighs 100 pounds and has brown eyes and brown hair. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on July 7, 2009 (encl. 9A-9B). § 87(2)(b) statement was generally consistent with that of § 87(2)(b) with the following exceptions. § 87(2)(b) stated that Lt. Bargellini, not PO Omisanya, took § 87(2)(b) backpack off. § 87(2)(b) also stated that PO Omisanya handcuffed § 87(2)(b) after frisking § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) further stated that Lt. Bargellini drove off with § 87(2)(b) backpack and threw it to the ground upon his return with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) gave Lt. Bargellini's threat as either "leave or get checked" or "leave unless you want to get checked."

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b)-old white male who is 5'0" tall and weighs 90 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on July 17, 2009 (encl. 10A-10B). § 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b) agreed with § 87(2)(b) that PO Omisanya took § 87(2)(b) backpack off, but stated that PO Omisanya opened this backpack and examined it before dropping it on the ground. § 87(2)(b) gave Lt. Bargellini's threat as "go home or we'll search you too." § 87(2)(b) stated that at the station house, when § 87(2)(b) stated that she wanted to make a complaint, Lt. Bargellini told her to go ahead, although he also stated something to the effect of "There's nothing to complain about."

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

Phone Statement

§ 87(2)(b) provided two consistent phone statements to the CCRB on July 2, 2009 and July 24, 2009 (encl. 11A-11B). § 87(2)(b) missed a scheduled interview at the CCRB and did not respond to a missed appointment letter and two follow-up calls. In total, three letters were sent and five calls were made to § 87(2)(b) between June 29, 2009 and August 7, 2009.

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b) stated that Lt. Bargellini, not PO Omisanya, dropped § 87(2)(b) backpack to the ground. § 87(2)(b) also stated that an officer behind the window at the 88th precinct told § 87(2)(b) that she had to file a complaint elsewhere, but § 87(2)(b) did not recall where § 87(2)(b) was told to go.

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

911 Call

§ 87(2)(b) called 911 at 3:33 p.m. on June 1, 2009 (encl. 15A). § 87(2)(b) was whipped in the face with a wad of thick grass at Clinton Avenue and Dekalb Avenue by W1, an approximately 16-year-old white male who was 6'0" and slender, wearing a long button-down shirt and baggy jeans. This male made a right on Vanderbilt Avenue, heading towards Willoughby Avenue. § 87(2)(b) was not injured and did not want medical assistance.

Phone Statement

§ 87(2)(b) provided a phone statement to the CCRB on September 9, 2009 (encl. 12). His description of W1 was consistent, with the exceptions that he stated W1 was about 15-years-old and added that W1 was olive-skinned, was wearing a white long-sleeve button-up shirt with a plaid-like pattern and was accompanied by a significantly shorter, approximately 15-year-old black male.

About six minutes after § 87(2)(b) called 911, PO Omisanya and Lt. Bargellini responded to § 87(2)(b)'s location. The officers talked to § 87(2)(b) for about thirty seconds before leaving to search for W1. § 87(2)(b) had the impression they already had a description of W1, as they were quite brief with him. § 87(2)(b) gave them a description of W1's shirt, but did not give them a description of his race and did not recall if he gave them a description of W1's height and weight.

After a little while, Lt. Bargellini came back and drove § 87(2)(b) to a show-up. At this location, PO Omisanya was holding § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) immediately identified § 87(2)(b) as not W1, as § 87(2)(b) was black. However, § 87(2)(b) was wearing a similar shirt to W1. Following this show-up, the officers drove around with § 87(2)(b) for a while to see if they could find W1, with negative results.

Attempts to Contact Additional Witnesses

At the time of intake, § 87(2)(b) provided the CCRB with a phone number which she thought belonged to either § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b). Five phone calls were placed to this number, ringing out each time. A 411.com reverse phone look-up found that this number was assigned to the Immaculate Conception Diocese of Brooklyn.

NYPD Statements:

Subject Officer: LT Gionata Bargellini

Lieutenant Gionata Bargellini is a § 87(2)(b)-old white male with brown hair and blue eyes who is 6'4" and weighs 210 pounds. On June 1, 2009, Lt. Bargellini worked from 11:30 a.m. to 8:15 p.m. as the platoon commander. Lt. Bargellini was in uniform and assigned to a marked RMP with PO Omisanya.

Memo Book

Lt. Bargellini has the following memo book entry regarding this incident (encl. 13A-13C). At 3:43 p.m. on June 1, 2009: "Male stopped w/ PO Omisanya re: 10-39/Assault—Negative on show-up. Victim vicinity of Dekalb/Clinton and Willoughby SQF [stop, question and frisk report] prepared and submitted.”

CCRB Testimony

Lt. Bargellini was interviewed at the CCRB on October 7, 2009 (encl. 13D-13F). At about 3:43 p.m. on June 1, 2009, Lt. Bargellini and PO Omisanya responded to Clinton Avenue and Dekalb Avenue, where they spoke to § 87(2)(b) who stated that juveniles had thrown a clump of grass at his face. Lt. Bargellini would classify this action as attempted assault. § 87(2)(b) was not injured and did not need an ambulance. § 87(2)(b) stated that there were two juveniles involved in the assault, one a black male and the other a white or Hispanic male, and that the assailant was wearing a plaid shirt. § 87(2)(b) did not specify if the black male or the white/Hispanic male was the assailant. Lt. Bargellini did not recall if § 87(2)(b) described the weight, height or build of the assailants. The officers only spoke with § 87(2)(b) for about ten seconds as he stated that his assailants had just run around the corner.

The officers told § 87(2)(b) to wait at Clinton Avenue and Dekalb Avenue and drove down Vanderbilt Avenue. About a block and a half away, the officers spotted a group of four juvenile males, two of them fitting the description of the assailants and one wearing a plaid shirt. The white or Hispanic male and the black male wearing a plaid shirt, identified as § 87(2)(b) were roughhousing or play-fighting while the other two males were watching them. This activity raised Lt. Bargellini’s level of suspicion. However, Lt. Bargellini mostly decided to stop § 87(2)(b) based on him matching the description provided by § 87(2)(b).

The officers pulled their RMP up by the juveniles and Lt. Bargellini asked § 87(2)(b) to come over to the RMP. § 87(2)(b) did not want to come over to the RMP. Lt. Bargellini told him to come over several times and § 87(2)(b) was saying, “No, I didn’t do anything wrong” and was backing away. § 87(2)(b) did not try to run away. Lt. Bargellini asked § 87(2)(b) if he had been involved in a fight or thrown grass at someone’s face after Lt. Bargellini’s first request for § 87(2)(b) to come over to the RMP. § 87(2)(b) denied that he had been involved in a fight or thrown grass at anyone.

PO Omisanya walked around the RMP and told § 87(2)(b) to place his hands on the RMP. As § 87(2)(b) did not comply, PO Omisanya placed § 87(2)(b) hands on the RMP and proceeded to frisk § 87(2)(b). Lt. Bargellini did not recall whether he instructed PO Omisanya to frisk § 87(2)(b) but may have done so. Lt. Bargellini did not observe any bulges on § 87(2)(b) clothing or anything that led him to believe that § 87(2)(b) may have had a weapon. After § 87(2)(b) was frisked, Lt. Bargellini noticed that there was no dirt on his hands.

§ 87(2)(b) friends were initially right next to him, but after § 87(2)(b) walked over to the car, they stepped three to four feet away. Lt. Bargellini told § 87(2)(b) friends to leave and asked them if they were also involved in this incident. Lt. Bargellini did not specify what would happen to § 87(2)(b) friends if they didn’t leave and did not tell either to leave or get checked or to leave or get searched. Lt. Bargellini did not recall if § 87(2)(b) had a backpack.

PO Omisanya held § 87(2)(b) while Lt. Bargellini drove off to retrieve § 87(2)(b) who was still at Dekalb Avenue and Clinton Avenue. Lt. Bargellini drove § 87(2)(b) to Vanderbilt Avenue and Willoughby Street, whereupon § 87(2)(b) stated that § 87(2)(b) was not the assailant. The officers told § 87(2)(b) that he was free to go and then drove around the neighborhood for five to ten minutes further with § 87(2)(b) in search of his assailants. This canvass yielded negative results.

Lt. Bargellini later returned to the 88th precinct station house to find that § 87(2)(b) mother, identified as § 87(2)(b) was present at the station house. § 87(2)(b) was upset about her son being stopped. Lt. Bargellini explained to § 87(2)(b) that they had stopped her son based on a radio run, talking to her for about twenty minutes. § 87(2)(b) threatened to sue Lt. Bargellini and the city, but did not ask to file a civilian complaint. No other officer who was present at the station house before Lt. Bargellini told him that § 87(2)(b) had asked to file a civilian complaint.

Subject Officer: PO Basil Omisanya

PO Basil Omisanya is a § 87(2)(b)-old black male with black hair and brown eyes who is 5'10" and weighs 170 pounds. PO Omisanya worked from 3:00 p.m. to 11:35 P.M. on June 1, 2009 as the lieutenant's operator. PO Omisanya was in uniform, assigned to a marked RMP and working with Lt. Bargellini.

Memo Book

PO Omisanya had the following memo book entries regarding this incident (encl. 14A-14B). At 3:41 p.m. on June 1, 2009: "10-39 @ Dekalb Ave + Clinton Ave." At 3:42 p.m.: "10-84." At 3:43 p.m.: "1 male stop[ped] § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) Phone # § 87(2)(b) Male was stopped due to a 10-39. Victim stated a male with a checker[ed] button-up shirt did hit him in the face with a patch of grass and dirt which did cause pain to his face. Show up was conducted with negative results. The male stopped was released."

Stop and Frisk Report

§ 87(2)(b) was stopped at Vanderbilt Avenue and Willoughby Avenue in Brooklyn at 3:46 p.m. on June 1, 2009 (encl. 14C-14E). He was stopped for five minutes, following one minute of observation, on suspicion of assault in the 2nd degree, because he fit a description. § 87(2)(b) was frisked, as he was suspected of committing a violent crime and he refused to comply with officers' directions, but he was not searched. The following force was used: "hands on suspect". § 87(2)(b) demeanor was described as "scared" and he made the following remark: "I just got out of school. I walked through the park."

CCRB Testimony

PO Omisanya was interviewed at the CCRB on October 7, 2009 (encl. 14F-14H). § 87(2)(g)

PO Omisanya confirmed that officers only asked for and received a clothing description and direction of flight for W1 from § 87(2)(b) PO Omisanya stated that § 87(2)(b) came over to the RMP after being asked to do so two or three times and PO Omisanya did not physically bring § 87(2)(b) to the RMP. PO Omisanya decided to frisk § 87(2)(b) on his own and was not instructed to do so by Lt. Bargellini.

PO Omisanya frisked § 87(2)(b) because § 87(2)(b) was suspected of having committed a violent crime. PO Omisanya classified hitting someone in the face with grass as assault in the second degree. PO Omisanya stated that a frisk is warranted in any case where there is suspicion of a violent crime. PO Omisanya further stated that he feared for his safety because § 87(2)(b) was suspected of having committed a violent crime and PO Omisanya was afraid that § 87(2)(b) “would do the same thing to me that he did to the victim.” PO Omisanya suspected that § 87(2)(b) might hit him in the face with grass because § 87(2)(b) did not initially comply with orders.

PO Omisanya did not observe any bulges on § 87(2)(b) person, but § 87(2)(b) was wearing a loose jacket that might hide any bulges. PO Omisanya could not initially see § 87(2)(b) hands and did not know what he had in his hands. However, by the time § 87(2)(b) had arrived at the RMP, PO Omisanya had seen his hands and did not think there was anything in them. PO Omisanya did not recall if he observed dirt on § 87(2)(b) hands.

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegations Not Pled

As § 87(2)(b) did not allege that his backpack was searched, this allegation was not pled.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation A—Abuse of Authority: At Willoughby Avenue and Vanderbilt Avenue, LT Gionata Bargellini stopped § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that officers forcibly stopped § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

An officer has the authority to stop an individual if they have a reasonable suspicion that this individual committed a crime (encl. 1A). People v. Debour, 40 N.Y.2d 210. A statement from an identified victim of a crime can provide an officer with such suspicion, if they provide a sufficiently detailed description of the perpetrator (encl. 1B-1D). Kamins, New York Search & Seizure, p. 2-62 to 2-64 (2008 ed.).

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) PO Omisanya and Lt. Bargellini agree that § 87(2)(b) described the perpetrator as a male juvenile wearing a plaid or checkered shirt who had gone down Vanderbilt Avenue towards Willoughby Avenue, which is consistent with § 87(2)(b)'s statement. On the basis of this limited description, officers stopped § 87(2)(b). However, § 87(2)(b) was not a match for the full description of § 87(2)(b)'s assailant: § 87(2)(b) is a 5'6" tall, § 87(2)(b)-old black male, while § 87(2)(b) was allegedly hit in the face with grass by a 6' tall white male who was about 16-years-old.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation B—Abuse of Authority: At Willoughby Avenue and Vanderbilt Avenue, PO Basil Omisanya frisked § 87(2)(b)
Allegation C—Abuse of Authority: At Willoughby Avenue and Vanderbilt Avenue, LT Gionata Bargellini supervised the frisk of § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that PO Omisanya frisked § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

Barry Kamins states that “the general rule regarding frisks...is that an officer must have reasonable suspicion to believe a suspect has committed a crime and a reasonable suspicion that the suspect is armed and dangerous...a frisk is permitted in the absence of a specific, articulated danger to the police when an officer stops a suspect because he reasonably believes the individual committed a violent crime” (encl. 1E-1F). Allegation D—Abuse of Authority: At the 88th precinct station house, LT Gionata Bargellini did not process § 87(2)(b) complaint regarding officers.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that she went to the 88th precinct to file a civilian complaint, but Lt. Bargellini told her that she had to call an 800 number, which he did not provide to her. Lt. Bargellini stated that § 87(2)(b) did not indicate to him that she wished to file a civilian complaint, but instead talked about suing him. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) all provided statements indicating that § 87(2)(b) attempted to file a complaint. However, § 87(2)(b) thought that § 87(2)(b) had been allowed to file this complaint and no civilians agreed on what officers told § 87(2)(b) to do. Furthermore, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) thought an unidentified officer who was not Lt. Bargellini told § 87(2)(b) that she could not file a complaint, although § 87(2)(b) identified Lt. Bargellini by name and pedigree information as the subject of this allegation.
